A laborer of Hibernian extraction was not long since lamenting the hard times, and drawing for a contrast a bright picture of his home in the old country. "Ah," said he finally, "av I was only back agin in me father's pallis." A jolly fellow-workman squinted his eye and replied—"Shure, an av ye were there ye moight sthau' on the groun' an' reach yer han' down the chimbley an appen the door av it."

Worse and Worse.—It often happens when a person takes pills to correct the howels, that although they seem to do their work, still the after effect, of their griping and purging, is to cause a reaction, which leaves the bowels worse than before, not so with WINGAT'S CATEGA.

Some Funny Advertisements.

Below will be found some of those oddities in advertising:

"Two young women want washing"

"Bebles taken and finished in ten minutes by a country photographer."

"Wood and coal split."

The next appeared in a London newspaper under the head of "For Sale."

"Piano forte—cottage—seven octaves—property of a lady leaving England in a remarkably elegant case on beautifully carved lega."

And what does this mean f
"Business chance—To be disposed of —A genuine fried fish business at the West End." Does the genuineness apply to the fish the business, or the way in which they are fried? are fried?
And one's mind gets hopelessly dazed over the advertisement offering a large reward for "A large Spanish blue gentleman's cloak lost in the neighborhood of the market."
There are others deliciously inconsequent, like the advertisement of a runaway, which furnished this valuable hint for identification:

away, which tremmed the valuable him for identification:

"Age not precisely known, but looks older than he is."

Or the notice a shoemaker put on his door:

"Shall be back in ten days from the time you see this shingle."

Some, however, leave no loop hole for doubt:
