OBITUARY.—An old and respected resident of this county, died here on Friday, May 6th, in the person Mr. Charles Stewart, of this place. The deceased was born in 1811, in the parish of Mortlach, Banffshire, Scotland, and emigrated to Canada in 1857, settled in Goderich township, where he resided until about seven years ago. He leaves an aged widow, four sons, Messrs. John Stewart, of Benmiller; Wm. Stewart, of Goderich; Jas. Stewart, of Salford; U. Stewart, of Salford; Miss Jane Stewart, milliner, Goderich; and Mrs. A. Henderson, of Goderich township, who mourn a kind husband and a good father.

Leeburn.

ENTERTAINMENT.—On the evening of Monday, the 29th inst., the choir of the Presbyterian church will give a concert under the leadership of Mr. J. Linklater. Readings and short appropriate addresses will also be on the programme. Rev. J. A. Turnbull will occupy the chair. The admission fee has been placed at the low price of 10c.

BORERS.—The bustling Borers, helped by rain, has been doing much injury to property hereabouts. A portion of the driving shed at "The Branch" was blown down, and a tree was flung across the telegraph wires, breaking them. No injury occurred to man or beast.

Benmiller.

On the 24th, vast preparations are being made to have a grand celebration. The band picnics are generally a grand success.

Mr. Paul Masdel has got over his illness, and is able to attend to his duties again.

The trustees are improving the school ground by having it levelled. They intend building a new fence around it. A great deal more traffic passes through Benmiller to Goderich on account of the Salford bridge. Some have been seen to pass through here from as far as Dunganon with loads.

Danlop.

PERSONAL.—Mr. D. Campion left us last week to take charge of some cattle being sent to the Old Country by Mr. W. McLean, the well-known Goderich driver. We wish him bon voyage.

THE CROPS.—The recent rains have brought forward the crops, and this week will witness the end of spring sowing. Fall wheat looks superb, particularly a field belonging to Mr. James Tobin. Competent judges who have seen it say that the best fields of our Leeburn cons are far behind it.

THE STORM.—The heavy rain storm of last week flooded our creeks, and blew down a few fences. It also created much excitement among a number of our residents. A terror stricken bachelor who was spending an evening with a tall friend, made an excuse, cleared off to an adjoining village, not 100 miles away, and enlisted in the benedict forces, much to the surprise of his bachelor brethren. May the remainder of his days be continual sunshine.

Dunganon.

Mr. J. M. Roberts, of this village, was away on a short tour last week for the purpose of laying in an addition to his present handsome stock of goods.

During the heavy gales of last week a new barn erected on the premises of Mr. John Nivens was blown down. Within the past week there were three funerals passed through this village, all very largely attended.

Mrs. James Trimble took her departure from here on Thursday last for Fordwich, where she has gone to visit her son.

There was no service in the Presbyterian church last Sabbath, on account of Mr. Leitch being absent assisting at a communion.

Mr. A. Disher, the obligent and popular salesman in Mr. Crawford's store, was for some time laid up by sickness. He is now able to take his accustomed place.

Miss Eva Malough gave her little friends of the village a party on Monday last. The party was large, although the folk were little, and all seemed to thoroughly enjoy the treat that Eva prepared for them.

Mr. Samuel Young, who has for a considerable length of time been assistant salesman in Mr. J. M. Roberts' store here, has retired from mercantile life, and gone to become one of the "horry listed sons of toil."

Mr. Sproule, of this village, has bought out the furniture business of Mrs. Stuthers, who retires and is going to live with her sister at the Nile. The premises occupied by Mrs. Stuthers are to be taken up by a gentleman from Clinton, who is going to start an organ business, etc.

The ladies of the Methodist congregation here propose to celebrate the Queen's Birthday by a grand bazaar. For the last two months they have been busy preparing every imaginable article of dress and everything else that will be likely to meet with ready sale. The object that is intended to draw special attention is a quilt on which there will be written over nine hundred names. Each name has realized ten cents, so that before being put up at auction, the quilt has realized ninety dollars. The church choir intend giving an entertainment in the evening when the quilt will be put up at auction.

Mr. H. Gault, M. P., for Montreal West, has determined not again to seek Parliamentary honors.

Sheppardton.

GOOD HORSEFLESH.—A young colt, only 11 months old, belonging to Mr. James Young, jr., was recently weighed, and tipped the beam at 937 lbs. Won't this announcement open the "peepers" of your Auburn, Dunlop and Carlow correspondents?

Wingham.

Mr. W. J. McCutcheon and family have just arrived from Winnipeg. He was formerly proprietor of the Central Hotel, and went to the Prairie Province last October. He there had the principal interest in the Brunswick House but has now sold out. By his Winnipeg venture he cleared $21,000, and intends going back and settling farther west after a visit among his friends in Ontario.

Carlow.

Mr. Thomas Moriah attended the Conference in Exeter last week.

Mrs. Alex. Stewart has gone to Detroit to visit her friends for a few weeks. We are glad to learn that Mr. W. Towale, who has been poorly, is improving.

Fall wheat looks well in this neighborhood, and promises to be a heavy crop.

Mr. W. J. Young has gone to Brucefield to resume his practice with Dr. Stewart.

HEAVY HORSES.—Mr. J. Glen has lost his fine agricultural brood mare, Jessie. She was undoubtedly one of the best animals of her class in the Province. She was shown at several exhibitions, and was always successful in carrying off a prize. She won a medal at the Centennial.

McKillop.

OBITUARY.—The many friends of the late John Dickson will regret to learn of his death, which took place at his residence, in McKillop, last Sunday morning, about 8 o'clock. He had always been a healthy, active man, but for the past few days had not been feeling very well, and on last Friday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, he went to bed, yet did not seem very sick, but on Saturday morning he took suddenly ill, when medical aid was procured, and in spite of all that human assistance could do for him he passed off quietly into the land of rest. The deceased was 62 years of age, and was a native of Scotland. In his early days he lived on the farm, and was for some time employed as a carpenter; also for a number of years merchant in the seaport town of Annan. In the spring of 1860 he emigrated to America, and after coming to the Huron tract he went on a visit to the township of Ashfield, where a brother of his resided, after which he set out to look for suitable land, but not finding any to suit him he went to Paris, where he remained about a year, after which he settled in McKillop over 20 years ago. He was industrious and upright, and before long had a comfortable home, where he resided till he died. Nearly all his relatives live in the Old Country. His remains were interred in the Brussels cemetery last Tuesday afternoon, followed by a large concourse of sorrowing friends. He leaves a wife and seven children to mourn his loss, a blank in the household never to be filled. He was a man of untiring industry, intelligence and uprightness in his dealings with his fellow men. — [New Era.]

CAADIAN NEWS.

The Hamilton case of alleged fraud in connection with the sale of Manitoba lots was dismissed, the complainant not putting in an appearance. The Norquay government finding the defeat was inevitable if they persisted with the Railway Bill in the Manitoba Local Legislature, withdrew it. It is reported that Mr. A. Johnston, of Stratford, better known as "Bishop" Johnston, is to be gerrymandered into the Tory candidacy for North Bruce. In Zion M. E. Conference, on the 15th ult., Bishop Moore severely criticized the members of the Conference who continually use tobacco, saying it detracted from their dignity. A meeting of the Reform Association of North Essex was held at Belle River, May 15, and Joseph A. Kilroy, of Wingham, chosen as a candidate at the coming election. The Merchants' Marine Insurance Company of Halifax acknowledges the receipt of $700 from Rev. Monseigneur Power, restitution money. This is one of the results of the recent visit of the Redemptorist Fathers to that city. An old man named Larocque, confined in jail at London, made an attempt on Sunday to commit suicide by opening an artery in his left arm. He was prevented by the jail authorities, who were alarmed by his antics. Timothy Sullivan, a laborer, working for J. & A. Taylor, farmers in the West Niasouri, went to Thorndale on the 10th inst., and imbibed rather freely. When next seen he was in a ditch next morning drowned. Medical aid was procured, but he never recovered consciousness, and died in a few hours. Quite a number of hogs owned by St. Catharines have lately died very suddenly. The nature of the disease dies not as yet appear to be well understood, but it seems the animal gets very sick, refuses all food, and dies in about four hours after being attacked. The Reform Association of the West Riding of Northumberland met in Cobourg last Saturday afternoon for the election of officers, and the selection of a candidate to contest the Riding at the coming general election for the House of Commons. Wm. Kerr, Q. C., ex-M. P., received the nomination. Mrs. Prosser and her daughter Annie, of Battle Creek, Mich., attempted suicide on Friday night by jumping into the Klamazo River. The former remade a success of the undertaking, but the latter, becoming chilled by the water, waded to the shore and left her mother to drown. The daughter went home and reported the fact to her brother. The body was recovered next day. The couple are believed to be laboring under a fit of temporary insanity.

The Privy Council have awarded $20,000 to Mr. Doutré for services as Canadian counsel in the Fishery Award case. The steamer Polynesian was twenty days on her passage, having been detained on the Atlantic as well as on the gulf by ice.

Sir Hugh Allan and his brother, Mr. Andrew Allan, have received threatening letters, which are supposed to have emanated from ship labourers. The Conservatives and Reformers held mass meetings in Picton on Saturday last to select their candidates for the approaching Dominion elections. Mr. J. S. McCuaig, the present member for the county, was the unanimous choice of the Conservatives. The Reformers again selected Dr. G. M. Platt as their candidate.

In Lucknow, on Monday the 15th ult. a sad accident occurred by which a boy named McClure, twelve years old, met with a shocking death. During the temporary absence of the engineer of Hays & Bell's furniture factory the boy went into the engine room, and by some means his clothes caught on the main shaft. His arm was torn out at the shoulder and both legs broken off by striking on the floor. He died instantly.

On Saturday evening, while the House was in conference, Sir John gave the following explanation regarding Sir A. T. Galt: "Sir Alexander, for private reasons, has offered his resignation, but it has not yet been accepted, and the subject will be brought up for discussion between himself, and the Government, when he arrives here. He sailed on the 4th. The Government have no intention to do away with the position. In case Sir Alexander's resignation is accepted and a vacancy takes place, the Government will endeavor to fill it."

The Dublin Tragedy.

It is believed that the assassins are still in Dublin, their car having been traced back to the city. From the latter information the conclusion is drawn that they are afraid that if separated they would turn traitor. Information gathered on Saturday shows that at least twelve were engaged in the tragedy. It is believed that in the cab which stood near the scene of the murder and loitering under the trees were armed men ready to effect a rescue in case the actual assassins were surprised. There is reason to believe that the assassins intended to murder eight persons. The Government has issued a special proclamation offering a reward of $500 for information leading to the arrest of any one harboring the assassins or aiding their escape. Persons harboring the assassins are liable to be sentenced to penal servitude for life. The police have now issued a description of the four men on the car. Two are described as about thirty years of age, with sandy hair; one about thirty-five, stout built, dark complexion, with a hollow on the bridge of his nose; and the other about twenty, with a small black moustache. The driver is described as between thirty-five and forty, with a red, bloated face. Bolger, a car driver from Kingstown, has been arrested at Moville and sent to Dublin. Corvin, arrested at Belfast on suspicion of being the driver of the assassins' car, has been released. The police are becoming dependent of securing the assassins. Dublin, May 15.—The police have discovered the car in which the murderers escaped. It was hired by strangers from the stable in the southern part of the city and returned about 8 o'clock on the evening of the murder. They hope to trace the driver.

Dublin, May 15.—The assassins discovered when the car returned to the stable on the night of the murder. The police suspect who the driver is, and have him under surveillance. He may be arrested, but the detectives have no charge of bringing home his guilt unless an informer comes forward. The persons who witnessed the assassins' flight have been shown the car, horse and suspected driver, but their evidence of identity is conflicting and unsatisfactory.

Dynamite-Rossa's Crew. A meeting of the representatives of the various Land League branches in Brooklyn was held Saturday evening at Jefferson hall, resolutions denouncing the assassination of Cavendish and Mr. Burke, and the coercive policy of Mr. Gladstone, were offered by ex-Judge Ross. There were strong objections to expressing any regret for the murder of Mr. Burke. After a warm discussion, Mr. Denahy offered as a substitute for the resolution the amendment proposed by Mr. Hogan at the Cooper Institute meeting on Friday evening. Mr. Donovan said he had no word of pity for the fate of Lord Cavendish, and as for expressing any sympathy for Mr. Burke, he would disdain to do such a thing. The scoundrel had met the fate he deserved, and God was to be thanked for it. The only policy for Ireland by Irishmen was that of the Nihilists of Russia. He would strike down every Englishman who was sent to rule Ireland as Lord Cavendish and Mr. Burke had been stricken down. On motion of Assemblyman Tighe, the resolution and the substitute were referred to a committee of five, to report at a meeting to be held next Saturday evening. A resolution approving of the action of Mr. John Boyle O'Reilly, of Boston, in offering a reward for the capture of the assassins was referred to the same committee. The Rossa element was quite strong, and altogether the meeting was very disorderly, the general feeling of that branch is voiced in the remarks of one of the speakers named Kelly, as follows:—"It seems to me, from hearing these resolutions read, that Thomas Haviland Burke ought to be enshrined as a saint. Nothing is to be expected from the English people except tyranny. Burke was the chief lieutenant, and active agent of Mr. Forster in all his outrages. He was one of the most contemptible Irishmen that ever lived, and yet Irishmen are everywhere passing resolutions of sympathy over his death. I for one, am not afraid to stand up and say don't believe the Irish cause has been hurt a bit by these events. I do not approve of the resolutions so long as Burke's name is mentioned in them. There is a good deal of gush over this affair."

Dr. McEachran reports the "mysterious disease" at New Glasgow recently to be anthrax. The cattle take a trembling as though cold when really they are burning hot. The jugular vein beats violently, breathing quickens, the animals weaken, fall down and stretch themselves out with head down back. The disease kills in six hours or more. The marine bicycle is a decidedly novel machine. It will be introduced this season. The motive power is a screw propeller, worked by the wheel exactly as the land machine. The float is in the style of the catamaran, each boat being 22 inches long and seven inches wide. These have air tight compartments, and are perfectly safe, so much so that an experienced rider has no trouble or danger even in the heaviest sea. The speed will be from eight to ten miles per hour.
