SATURDAY'S GRAIN MARKETS.
Winnipeg, Man., November 24.—A feature of the Winnipeg market was continued activity and strength on May 11. Trading was very heavy and it was difficult to trace just who were buying. The advance for the morning was $\frac{1}{8}$, which left Winnipeg at 107 1/2; Chicago, 106 3/4; Minneapolis, 108 3/4; and St. Louis, 109 1/4. Receipts were 370 cars, of which 124 were contract grade. American markets opened stronger, but declined on marked weakness in corn and oats. There was again an advance at the close, gain of the morning being 1 cent for December, $\frac{1}{4}$ cent for May in Minneapolis.

Winnipeg options: November 1.02 to 1.035; December .915 to 1.025; January closed 1.03, May, 1.105, to 1.115.

July closed 1.125. Oats—November 36 to 47 1/2; December 44 1/2 to 45 1/2; May closed 55. Cash prices: No. 1 Northern 1.02; No. 2 Northern, 99%; No. 3 Northern, 95%; No. 4 Northern, 92%; No. 5 wheat, 74; No. 6 wheat, 59%; feed No. 1, 53; feed No. 2, 43; rejected, 34; No. 1 Northern, 96. Oats—No. 2 white, 47 1/2; No. 3 white, 42 1/2; rejected, 34; No. 1, 1.00.

American options: Chicago December, 90% to 91%; May 92% to 1.00%; July 95% to 1.00%; Minneapolis: December, 92% to 1.00%; May 1.00% to 1.07%; July 1.07 to 1.08%.

FOSTER'S WEATHER FORECAST.
Washington, D.C., Nov. 25.—Last bulletin gave forecasts of disturbance to cross continent 24 to 28, warm wave 23 to 28, 26 to 30. Next disturbance will reach Pacific coast about 30, cross west of Rockies country by close of December 1, from central valleys 2 to 4, eastern states 8. Warm wave will cross west of Rockies about 26, great central valleys December 3, eastern states 4. Cool wave will cross west of Rockies about December 3, great central valleys 5, eastern states 7.

For December the great planet Jupiter will be at his greatest disturbing point, late in the month Mercury, the magnetic disturber, will enter its conjunction with the earth. Venus will still be in magnetic touch with the earth's magnetic equator and late in the month will come into the electric circle that touches our atmosphere. All the planets except Saturn will add their disturbing forces to the element of disturbance now in phase, and we may expect anything rather than a soothing, smoky Indian summer in December.

The first disturbance of December described above will lift the temperature to a higher plane, the first such in the winter season, and although the weather will be rough it will not be cold.

Up to December 16 the month will be very dry and therefore I expect the amount of snow will be comparatively dry. A severe cold wave will precede it, but the cold wave following will be mild and high a cold wave. Following December 10 a hot up for very bad weather. General forecast of December will be given in next bulletin.

About and immediately before December 23, cold, dry, blustery, muggy, damp and disagreeable weather will continue to end more with the exception of a short moderate spell that will reach meridian 30 about 28. Another disturbance will reach us about 29 and then gradually warmer until January 10.

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS.
Winnipeg, November 25.—The wheat market continued nervous, but with more hopeful tone than yesterday. Liverpool closed $\frac{1}{4}$ higher and continental markets were all higher. The weekly statistics are bullish, the world's shipments being less than nine million bushels, against over eleven million during the same week last year, and the quantity on consignment shows a decrease of three million bushels for the week, against an increase of over two and a quarter million bushels last year. The American markets opened nervous, but shades lower and advanced and declined alternately several times during the session, within a range of $\frac{1}{4}$ cent, ultimately closing $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{4}$ over Saturday's close. The Winnipeg market was somewhat dull, there being no large trading in evidence, and the close was $\frac{1}{2}$ cent over Saturday's.

Today's prices are: No. 1 Northern, 1.02; No. 2 Northern, 99%; No. 3 Northern, 95%; No. 4 Northern, 92%; No. 5 wheat, 74; No. 6 wheat, 59%; feed wheat, 53; No. 2 feed, 43; oats—No. 2 white, 47 1/2; No. 3 white, 42 1/2; rejected, 34. No questions on barley or rye.

MONTEAL STOCK MARKETS.
Montreal, November 25.—There was no striking price changes in connection with the trading in stock on this date. The market was somewhat quiet, there was in evidence the undertone of weakness, and anything in the nature of selling of greater proportions than the market has lately seen. The market was generally steady, with prices downward. The Timothy held at 72 1/2, but went off to 71 on light selling and Rio after opening at 2 sold from 27 1/2. The Union Steel was steady at 13 1/2. Other features of the trading were: St. Paul, 21; Detroit, 31; So. Common 71 to 70 1/2; Richlieu 59.

THE GAME THAT HAS OUSTED BRIDGES.
Diablo clubs are being formed in England, newspapers are devoting a great deal of space to it, and if you are not well read you are bound to hear of it. It is a new game, and is a combination of chess, backgammon, and bridge. It is a game of skill, and is a game of chance. It is a game that is being played by the millions of people in all parts of the world. It is a game that is being played by the millions of people in all parts of the world. NO CATTLE TURNED BACK.
Winnipeg, Nov. 25.—J. T. Gordon, president of the firm of Gordon, Irons and Fares, wished to go on record in connection with a recent statement that 50,000 head of cattle had been turned back on the ranges between the banks of the Red and Assiniboine rivers, and that the money that had been paid for the movement of cattle to the ranges had been refunded to the shippers. He stated that the banks have supplied all the money that has been required for the movement of cattle, and that the movement of cattle is being carried out in a most satisfactory manner. He stated that the banks have supplied all the money that has been required for the movement of cattle, and that the movement of cattle is being carried out in a most satisfactory manner.

MONDAY'S GRAIN MARKETS.
Winnipeg, Nov. 25.—Receipts at Winnipeg for Saturday and Sunday were 553,950 bushels, of which a very heavy per cent was low grade. Stocks in store at Fort William are over five and three-quarters millions, though the increase over last week is not so large as expected and outward shipments were practically the same as for the corresponding week of last year. World's shipments were only 5,541,000 against 11,000,000 last year. In addition to small shipments, Russian news was very bullish. Demand for the continent was good, and all cables were higher. American markets opened fractionally higher, held fairly steady all the morning, and closed with Chicago 17 1/2 higher, and Minneapolis $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{4}$ higher. Winnipeg market was strong and active, in spite of large receipts, though activity was again confined to May, which sold up to $\frac{1}{4}$ higher, and closed at $\frac{1}{2}$ bid and $\frac{1}{4}$ offer Saturday's close. All coarse grains were dull and oats 1 1/2 to 2 cents lower.

Winnipeg options—Wheat: November, 1.03 1/2 to 1.035; December, 1.02 1/2 to 1.03; January, 1.035 to 1.12; July closed 1.125. Oats—November 45 to 44; December 36 to 45; May, close 53.

THE RELATION OF THE ASSOCIATIONS

G. P. Wells, Ex-Secretary Mountain Millmen's Association, on Stand in Lumber Combine Trial.

The relations of the British Columbia manufacturers and the Alberta retailers was the subject of inquiry in the lumber conspiracy case in the Supreme court this morning. Geo. P. Wells, the secretary of the Mountain Mills association at the time the conspiracy was said to have existed, was the witness. His cross-examination was not concluded when the court rose at 12:45.

It is probable that the case for the crown will be completed about Wednesday. The evidence should be received by the defense in a few days. It will take or whether witnesses will be called by the defense is not yet known. It is probable, however, that Mr. Bennett will be called to testify in support of the law of evidence and discredit the admissibility of a large portion of the crown's case.

The chief witness called to support the defense was the secretary of the Mountain Mills association, which was the first witness called this morning. Wells was asked to produce a copy of the bylaws and constitution of the A. R. L. D. association. There was no objection to this. It was only a matter of time before the entire information with respect to the deal was made available to the other side. TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS.
Winnipeg, Man., November 26.—The wheat market was more strong for today. Liverpool was $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ higher. The American markets opened higher and advanced gradually. Their action showed increased confidence and the closing quotations were $\frac{1}{2}$ to 2 cents higher than yesterday's close. Winnipeg was also strong under the influence of the strength in other markets, and closing prices were $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ higher.

Today's Winnipeg prices are: No. 1 Northern, 1.04; No. 2 Northern, 1.03; No. 3 Northern, 97; No. 4 wheat, 81; No. 5 wheat, 77; No. 6 wheat, 61; feed wheat, 53; No. 2 feed, 43; No. 3 feed, 33; No. 4 feed, 23; No. 5 feed, 13; No. 6 feed, 3; No. 7 feed, 3; No. 8 feed, 3; No. 9 feed, 3; No. 10 feed, 3.

FEDERATION OF LABOR FIGHT FOR 8-HOUR DAY

Plans Made for Great Union Over All the Country—Union Label Will be Demanded.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 25.—The American Federation of Labor declaring a national eight-hour day, and calling on all workers to support it. The federation is now in the process of organizing a great union over all the country. It is demanding the use of the union label on all goods. HEBREW UNION OPPOSED.

After a long and exciting debate the convention referred to the executive council a proposition to compel all international unions having local affiliates with the United Hebrew Trades Council to withdraw their dues from the union label on all goods. The discussion brought out many interesting union internal troubles in New York. Denying that any religious trades union was involved, several speakers alleged that the United Hebrew Trades council was proposing to use an aid to the organization of craft unions with the American Federation of Labor, had no more right to a separate organization than did the Irish or Germans, and is promoting the boycott of recognized unions in New York with continuous work against the interests of trades unions in that city when on strike.

Seek to Aid Women.

A number of resolutions were passed and other important action taken. Resolutions were passed calling for a minimum wage of 89 per cent for women retail clerks, calling on the meat packers to define their future policy toward the cutlers and butchers, calling for the universal organization of "union label leagues" as those in Denver, Salt Lake City, St. Louis and Kansas City, calling on the women of the country to demand the union label on all products purchased, and referring to the executive council with heavy approval the question of having women organizers.

Not Urging in Lisbon.

New York, Nov. 27.—The World received the following dispatch from Lisbon in answer to a query: "The prime minister instructs me to say that the news contained in your telegram is absolutely without foundation. Public opinion in this country is practically undisturbed, as you can ascertain from your minister." Signed Jose Galvo, chief secretary. This of course refers to rumored uprising on the capital.

THE MAIL FOR THE NORTH COUNTRY

Will Leave Edmonton on its Long Journey to the Arctic Circle on Friday

Officials of the Edmonton post office are doing an unusual piece of work these days in preparing mail which will be sent to the north right up to the Arctic circle.

This is being done as a result of orders issued by the deputy postmaster general, and the special mail service will be similar to that provided last winter to Fort Resolution, Fort MacPherson and intermediate points. The mail will leave Edmonton Friday morning, Nov. 29th, in charge of a Hudson's Bay man. A distance of about 1,800 miles will be traversed by this mail before he reaches the end of his journey at Fort MacPherson, on the Mackenzie river.

With the exception of the first 100 miles by horses, the entire trip will be made by dog trains, the driver securing loads of fresh dogs at post offices en route. At times during the winter the thermometer will drop down to 60 degrees below zero, and the lone traveller will be forced to brave for days at a time the icy winds and blizzards that come down from the great northland. He will be beset with dangers of all kinds, for the entire length of the trip, and will for a greater part of the distance be forced to subsist on game shot along the way. The dogs will be fed on tallow and fish.

At night the hardy mail man will erect a small canvas shelter, make a billy of tea from snow water, and, after a frugal meal, in which bread or any of the luxuries of civilization will not have a part he will smoke a pipe, roll up in his blankets and try to get a few hours' sleep. The long hours of rest, despite the fact that there are only eleven post offices between Athabasca Landing and Fort MacPherson, is a great deal away with settlers' inconveniences through having to go many hundreds of miles for their mail, the driver is instructed to deliver letters to people living along the route, which practically means rural free delivery in the Arctic. It is necessary to limit the mail matter for these dispatches to letters only. The weight of each letter is to be not more than one ounce. Letters may be registered, but not insured. Preference will be given first to registered letters, and second to ordinary letters, according to the date of mailing. The post office to be called at on the long route are as follows: Fort McMurray (or Fort McKay), Fort Chipewyan (Smith Landing), Fort Smith, Fort Resolution, Hay River, Fort Providence, Fort Simpson, Fort Wrigley, Fort Norman, Fort Good Hope, Fort McPherson. A special mail will leave Edmonton early in January for points north as far north as Fort Smith, and a second mail will leave Edmonton early in February for Fort McMurray (or Fort McKay), Fort Chipewyan, Smith Landing, Fort Smith, Fort Resolution.

Association Has Sales Department.

The association keeps a sales department, conducted by the secretary. The secretary is instructed to deliver letters to people living along the route, which practically means rural free delivery in the Arctic. It is necessary to limit the mail matter for these dispatches to letters only. The weight of each letter is to be not more than one ounce. Letters may be registered, but not insured.
