Highlanders Dance Last Night

"A" Company of the Newfoundland Highlanders held a Grand Dancing Assembly in the British Hall, last night, over two hundred couple attending. The ball room was profusely decorated and everything went pleasing. A choice programme of dances were taken up at 8.30 and terminated at 2.30 this a.m. The music being excellently discoursed by the C. C. C.
Band. The success of the event is mainly due to the unceasing efforts of Messrs. B. Allan and E. Noseworthy, who had charge of the arrangements.
During the evening the Pipes of the Brigade gave a few selections while the Highland Scottische was being reel off by several of the "Kilties."

Garden Party at Torbay.

The Garden Party in aid of the new Church Fund was held at Torbay, yesterday. The grounds where the affair was held were gaily decorated and the attendance was surprisingly large, hundreds of people from the city driving to the settlement in cortages. Tea, refreshments, etc., were served by the ladies in charge, and a prick business was done. At night a lance was held in the T. A. Hall and was heartily enjoyed, the Society's band supplying the music. The proceeds realized were up to expectations and the co-workers are delighted over the success achieved.

Barnstorming.

BY H. L. RANN.

Barnstorm-
ing is a polite term which is used to describe
what the people of the rural predicts have to put up with in way of stage realism.

The barnstorm-
er is an uncer-tified amateur who draws whatever salary is left after paying the car fare to the next town and who welcomes any kind of uplause, from fresh eggs to early vegetables.

Most of the barnstormers leap from the farm to the title role in "St. Elmo" with so much success that they are often confused for the real article. They have a very complex and exhausting life, as they are obliged to get up at noon, dress carefully for the parade, earn which side of the stage to come on, and strangle the English language throughout the evening performance.

There is quite a little acting concealed on the barnstorming circuit, some of it is concealed so successfully that the audiences remonstrate by decorating the drop curtains with floral ribbons in the form of cabbage and wing carrots.

Every barnstormer expects some day to make Robert Mantell look like the old man in a home talent minstrel. To that end, he memorizes Marc Antony's oration between meals and cultivates stage stride which is a cross between he still-walking crane and a cripple with a club foot.

In some localities which never have a chance to see the drama except when somebody in a touring car runs over a setting hen, the barnstormer is welcomed as a change from pitching quits and betting on the cost of a funeral outfit. The recent slump in stage values has caused barnstormers to become so common in our smaller towns that they can go around in English walking coats and white spats without being shadowed by the night watch.

Not all the barnstorming is done in the country. A pretty fair imitation can occasionally be found in theatres which set a man back $4 for the family circle. This tends to prove that true merit often goes unrecognized, while a fine quality of puncture-proof nerve gets the coin.

Congregational Picnic.

The Congregational Sunday School pupils and teachers held their annual picnic yesterday at Smithville. The day being fine a very enjoyable outing was spent by the younger folks who indulged in the regular picnic amusements, while a good many of the parents were present and entered into the fun with much zest.
