LONDON AND ENVIRONS.
—Pat Rooney to-night.
—Miss Eva Pink, of Port Huron, is now on a visit to this city.

—Nuts and acorns are said to be plentiful in the woods surrounding the city.

—The police are on the search for a female patient who has wandered away from the asylum.

—It is understood the Lake Shore is seriously considering the adoption of the air signal for its train service.

—The air was heavy last evening with smoke from innumerable roadside leaf bonfires engineered by the omnipresent small boy.

—Mr. J. F. Cryer intended leaving today with his family for New York, where he will practice law. Owing to the illness of Mrs. Cryer his departure has been postponed until her recovery.

—Aylmer Turner and Alfred Oliver, of Lucan, were discharged by Judge Elliott yesterday. They were charged with stealing a goose and had been illegally sentenced to a term by the Lucan magistrates.

—Mr. Charles Wheeler, the clever organist of St. Andrew's Church, in this city, has been engaged to give a recital on Monday evening next at the opening of the new grand organ in the Presbyterian Church at Listowel.

—Mr. T. J. L. Orme, of London, Ont., accompanied by his wife and family, are in the city on a visit to Mrs. Orme's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Percy, No. 844 Twenty-first street.—[Chicago British-American.]

—London has a church scandal on its hands, which it is rolling under its tongue as a sweet morsel.—[Windsor Record.] This city must have quite a capacity "under its tongue," when it admits both hands and a church scandal at once.

—A reception banquet will be tendered by the L. O. O. F. of this district to Dr. C. T. Campbell, recently appointed deputy grand sire at the Sovereign Grand Lodge meeting in Toronto, Kan. The affair will take place at the City Hotel on Oct. 16.

—The Knights of St. John are endeavoring to organize an excursion to London on the 10th of the present month, the time of Bishop Connors' consecration. The excursion ought to pay, for many Windsor and Detroit people will be present to witness the important ceremonies.—[Windsor Record.]

—Among our visitors from London this week are Samuel Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Williams, Miss M. Watson, Mrs. F. W. Watt and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. O. Richards, Mr. Richards, Mark Flinton and wife, Mr. H. Silke and two daughters, H. B. Johnston, F. E. Mountjoy and Mrs. Barnard.—[Chicago Canadian-American.]

—Mr. D. T. McAlmish, manager of the Presbyterian News Company, Toronto, is in the city. He reports unprecedented success which his company have had in the sale of Stanley's book. The first edition (50,000 copies) is exhausted, and they are about to bring out another edition. Mr. Finchamp is the agent for the city.

—Clara Louise Kellogg being billed for Wednesday next, "He, She, Him and Her" for Thursday, and the Grand Opera Company for Friday make the week one of the most interesting that the Grand Opera House will have this season. Certainly the Kellogg and Jephthah attractions are such as will suit the most fastidious and large audiences are expected for them.

—The retail grocers of this city have formed a protective association, its objects being the collection of debts and the prevention of imposition being practiced upon the members by those who are not in the habit of paying for their groceries. The president is Mr. A. McCormick; the vice-president is Mr. W. H. Ferguson; treasurer, Mr. Robt. Sharpe, and secretary, Mr. J. B. Smyth.

—The next meeting of the Board of Domestic and Foreign Missions of the Church of England will be held in this city. At the meeting just concluded at Kingston Miss Jennie C. Smith, of Kingston, training work, and Rev. J. G. Waller, vice-president, were accepted for foreign mission work, and Rev. J. G. Waller, vice-president, was appointed as a missionary to Japan. The contributions for the year are $7,000 higher than last year.

—Mr. John Davidson, formerly manager of the Grand Opera House here, but now manager of the Bay City Opera House, was married yesterday to Miss Libbie Grant, of Windsor. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Gray, at the residence of the bride's mother, and was private, only the relatives of the bride and groom being present. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson left on the evening train for Bay City, their future home. The presents given were numerous and costly.

—Two well-known residents in Brussels attended the Western Fair at London. They came home via Listowel, taking the evening train from the Thames metropolis. Forgetting that a change of cars was necessary at Listowel, they were speeding toward Palmerston. When two men had been covered and the conductor informed them of their mistake, the train was stopped and, although twenty miles intervened between them and their friends, they set their compass toward the northwest and arrived home about 4 o'clock next morning.—[Brussels Post.]

—Of the "Two Old Chums," which will be here on Monday and Tuesday next, the Columbus, Ohio, Journal says: "Austin's 'Two Old Chums' Musical Comedy Company opened to a packed house last night and we must say are the best we have had for many seasons. Musically, they are a grand success, the musical specialties alone being worth the price of admission, and the play affords Field and Winchell an excellent opportunity for displaying their superior comedy work, which they do to perfection. The entire company deserve applause."

Pat Rooney at the Grand.
At the Grand Opera House last evening the attraction was nothing less than the famous Irish delineator, Pat Rooney, who appeared in "Pat's New Wardrobe," supported by his little daughter Mattie and a company of genuine artists. The evening's performance was the afternoon at the London Clam Bake, and having won the hearts of the Clams almost everywhere, the party occupied seats in the house or boxes.

—Pat made it interesting for them by cracking numerous jokes. Mattie came on the stage and said, "Say, you're full of chums." "Yes," remarked Rooney, "and so are all those who were with me this afternoon."

—Of the musical portion of the entertainment too much cannot be said, for, besides the Rooneys, all have good voices and use them well. Messrs. Earnest, Harley, Pieri and Graham make one of the most clever quartets heard in London for a long time. Their imitations, warbles, echoes and re-echoes were splendid. The jokes are clever and the songs are both new and old, yet all acceptable. The entire company is accomplished and versatile. "Pat's New Wardrobe" is hailed again for this evening.

Meeting of Mission Circles.
The quarterly union meetings of the Ladies' Mission Circles in connection with the local Baptist Churches were held in the South London Church yesterday afternoon and evening, and were well attended.

—After devotion exercises, led by Mrs. (Hon.) David Mills, Mrs. Weld acting as secretary. Reports were presented from the different circles, showing that increased interest had been taken in the work, and good progress made especially by the junior bands. Miss M. Oliphant read an interesting paper on "Open Doors." The paper on "Consecration in Daily Life." The afternoon meeting was supplemented by a "tea" provided by the ladies of the South London Church, to which the husbands of members were welcomed. In the evening a largely-attended open meeting was held at which Rev. W. J. McKay, B.A., pastor of the South London Church, presided. After devotion exercises, led by Rev. Mr. Siple, of Grosvenor Street Church, followed with a solo by Miss Laura Fysh, a most interesting address was given by Rev. P. K. Daycroft, M.A., of Stratford, on the subject "Do Missionaries Pay?"

—A speaker demonstrated in a clear and convincing manner, even from a financial standpoint, the work was largely benefited by the support of the mission work, that it was cheaper to Christianize the Indian—and the white man, for that matter—than to depend on the terrors of the military or the law to keep him in check.

AT THE FAIR.
The great attraction to the left on entering the main building was the display of W. S. Rogers' Barkwell, consisting of those fragrant and lasting perfumes, Fedora and Winona. The great sensation here hundreds of ladies may be seen to throng around that center with their handkerchiefs extended to the spray of the atomizer till they are almost at being the happy possessors of those fragrant odors for which Mr. Barkwell received first prize at the Provincial Exhibition and a completely filled the Crystal Palace to the great Toilet Articles and pharmaceutical preparations all of which are most harmoniously arranged in every particular and contained in an enclosed case, on either side of which is to be seen elegant show bottles containing various bright and beautiful colors, but we would not do Mr. Barkwell and especially our readers justice if we failed to mention Barkwell's Sura Corn Cure and Barkwell's Brucial Balm, which are well known and reliable articles, which he sends to all parts of the Province. A new one has been added—the new famous Diamond Tea—which promises, if possible, even greater success, and is really the greatest blood remedy ever offered to humanity.

A duet, "Not Ashamed of Jesus," was then given with pleasing effect by Mr. John Drew and Miss Edith Hartington. Rev. H. C. Speller, of Adelaide Street Church, followed in a brief, practical address on "Home Missions," emphasizing the necessity for sending out spiritual teachers with the ever-increasing bands of emigrants who settling the Far West. A collection and the benediction brought the very interesting meeting to a close.

Peculiar.
In the combination, preparation, and preparation of its ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures where other preparations cannot fail. Peculiar in its good name at home, which is a "tower of strength abroad," peculiar in the phenomenal sales it has attained, Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most successful medicine for purifying the blood, giving strength, and creating an appetite.

Sing a song of sixpence,
The price of "Diamond Dyes;"
The fairest of all colors,
That please the ladies' eyes;
They happy make each mother,
Each wife and daughter true;
And all tell one another,
What "Diamond Dyes" can do
So sing a song of sixpence,
For what these dyes have done,
In giving glorious colors,
That hold in rain or sun.

Mr. Softly Young—I beg you, Miss Mangler, at least not to say that you will be a sister to me. Miss Mangler—No, Mr. Young I promise you I will not. What you need most is a mother.

Gold Medal Saws.
Owing to want of space and time, the beautiful exhibit of saws made at the Toronto Industrial Exhibition and also the Western Fair at London have not been specially mentioned. These exhibits were undoubtedly among the finest that have ever been made, as they were so pronounced by parties who have viewed the great Exposition of London, Eng., Paris, France, and Centennial, United States. These goods were manufactured by Messrs. Shurly & Dietrich, of the Maple Leaf Saw Works, Galt, Ont. These gentlemen claim to occupy the highest position as saw manufacturers, as their goods are admitted to be among the finest tempered goods in the world, and as to finish, they are unequalled. Their ambition is to make the best, and so well have they succeeded that they ship goods to many foreign countries. They are the only manufacturers in this line who export to the United States in large quantities, and their saws are there sold at a much higher price than the best American made goods. American goods are sold in this market, but at a lower price than the Maple Leaf saws. So it is fair to presume that Canada leads the world, at least in the manufacture of saws. These works were established in 1874 by Messrs. Shurly & Dietrich, and are now considerably the largest in Canada, and with their increasing trade with the United States and other foreign countries, their prospects are very good to be among the largest in the world. Although there were no prizes offered at the Western Fair for saws, the management were so pleased with the exhibit and the quality of goods that they awarded Messrs. Shurly & Dietrich the gold medal. bdkw

Sing Their Own Praises.
There are few, if any, in the great army of smokers who have not been, by experience, placed in a position to judge as to the merits of the "Norma" 10-cent cigar manufactured by H. McKay & Co., of London. In almost every cigar store and hotel in Canada this set of all Jokers of 10-cent goods has found its way, and is finding rapid and constantly increased sale. Unlike other similar goods, its fame is not of a transient nature. The "Norma" contains all the merits of the imported cigar, and has in many cases supplanted its more expensive rivals, and each successive season but adds to its host of admiring customers. The large establishment of H. McKay & Co. is kept continually engaged in supplying the demands made upon them for the "Norma."
