The Police Succeed in Capturing a Num-ber of These Kounders-Dealt With in Court.

The proceedings at the Police Court this

The proceedings at the Police Court this morning were characterized by a vagrancy odor. Several of those indescribable personages appeared in the dock.
Charles E. Brown, a forlorn-looking specimen of humanity, was first arraigned.
"Where are you bound for?" asked the judicial inquisitor.
"I am going west to Kingston," responded the forlorn one, and then, a slight, and radiating his countenance—thinking, doubtless, to impress the interrogator with his extensive knowledge of the destination to which he was making—he added, "The Limestone City."

"What is your profession?" further queried Mr. Parke.
"I am a superannuated tramp, your honor."
"Remanded till Monday," put a stop to
any further conversation.

any further conversation.

Geo. Powell and Geo. Fox. belonging to the same fraternity, who were caught in the eastern portion of the city last night chasing a young woman, were similarly dealt with.

chasing a young woman, were similarly dealt with.

The authorities will try to get Isaac Carphill, who was arrested on a charge of vagrancy, admitted into the Old Men's Home. The aged non-business possessing perigrinator said during the magistrate's inquiry that he was a volunteer in this city 53 years ago. He was safe in making such an assertion, as no one present was old enough to disprove his veracity.

John Murphy, a sycophantic old-timer, apppeared on a charge of having imbibed too freely. He was in the dock yesterday answering a similar offense, In justification of his position he urged that the present "drunk" was but a continuation of the one which was so rudely inter-tion of the one which was so rudely intertion of the one which was so rudely interrupted by his former incarceration, and that consequently he could not be charged with the same misdemeanor twice. Magistrate Parke admitted that there was something in his defense,

and will give him until Monday next to ober up properly.

'After the court adjourns a policeman "After the court adjourns a policeman will show you the shortest way out of town," said the magistrate to another vagrant, Patrick Wall. Accordingly P. C. Howie took the prisoner in charge, and the latter, with a large basket containing an apology for some clothes over his arm, was led, with a pleased expression of countenance, to the city limits.

Lecture on Fools-Admit Ore.

A gentleman who lectured on fools, printed his tickets as above. Suggestive, certainly, and even sarcastic. What fools are they who sufer the inroads of disease when they might be cured. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is sold under a positive gurrantee of its benefiting or curing in every case of Liver, Blood and Lung disease, or money paid for it cheerfully refunded. In all blood taints or impurities of whatever name or nature, it is most positive in its curative effects. Pimples, Blotches, Eruptions, and all Stin and Scalp diseases, are radically cured by this wonderful medicine. Scrofulcus disease may affect the glands, causing wiscase may affect the glands, causing "Feversores," "White Swellings," "Hip-joint Diseases"; or the tissues of the lungs, causing Pulmonary Consumption. Whatever its manifestations may be, "Golden Medical Discovery" cures it. Lecture on Fools-Admit Ore.
