

From the Atlantic to the Pacific

Seal Brand Coffee

finds a welcome in a hundred thousand homes because of its unvarying high grade quality.

Sold in 1 and 2 lb. Cans only.

116

CHASE & SANBORN, MONTREAL.

27 MEN GO DOWN WITH SUBMARINE

French Craft Pluviose Was Struck by English Channel Steamer.

Calais, France, May 26.—Another French submarine, the Pluviose, with three officers and 24 men aboard, lies tonight in 30 fathoms of water. She was sent to the bottom of the English Channel this afternoon by the cross-channel steamer, Pas de Calais, which, crowded with passengers bound for Dover, struck the partly submerged Pluviose, when about two miles from the harbor.

Accounts differ as to the cause of the accident. Admiral Fournier has expressed the opinion that the submarine attempted to pass beneath the steamer, while other officials think the Pluviose, after a long dive, came up by chance directly under the paddle wheels.

The shock of the contact brought the passengers to the steamer's rails, and they saw almost instantly the hull of the submarine, rolling about as though trying to right herself. A boat was hastily launched, but the foundering craft, which seemed to have been hard hit, turned partly over and disappeared.

Signals of distress from the Pas de Calais, which was making water rapidly, brought two tugs to the scene and later a torpedo boat destroyer put out and anchored near where the Pluviose had gone down. Within an hour or two a wrecking vessel was lying near the destroyer, and the crew was making hasty preparations to send down divers to locate the ill-fated submarine.

The chances of rescue are very slim, because, in the opinion of experts, either the naphtha reservoirs of the Pluviose burst or the craft was so badly damaged that it tilted.

"BEEF TRUST" SAFE

Cannot Be Prosecuted According to a Chicago Court Decision.

Chicago, May 26.—Astonishment struck the Government attorneys in the prosecution of the alleged "beef trust" today when counsel for the indicted National Packing Company and its ten subsidiaries advanced the claim that even though the combine were a trust the federal authorities would be powerless to prosecute it on a criminal charge.

Arguing before Judge Landis in support of a demurrer to the indictments, Attorney G. T. Buckingham declared that any trust, after three years from the date of its organization was immune from prosecution under the criminal statutes.

The statute of limitations, he asserted, tied the Government's hands and made it impossible to push the National Packing Company for entering into a combination on March 10, 1903.

The Government contends that the statute of limitations cannot run against an illegal trust; that its violation of the law is a continuous thing and that its very existence is contrary to the Sherman anti-trust law. Such was the argument made by Assistant District Attorney Wilkerson in reply to Mr. Buckingham.

Judge Landis did not announce his decision on the demurrer, but took the case under advisement. If the courts were to uphold Mr. Buckingham's reasoning, it is declared, it would be impossible to reach any trust more than three years old by a criminal proceeding. The only relief would lie in a chancery proceeding to cause the dissolution of the combine.

Baby Eczema Skin Irritations

SPLENDID RESULTS OBTAINED BY USING DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT, THE GREATEST OF HEALERS.

Thoughtful mothers are forsaking pore-clogging and insidious powders for the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment and find there is no treatment so effective for chafed and irritated skin, scald head and eczema.

This ointment makes the skin soft and smooth and insures healthy natural action of the pores of the skin. A trial of Dr. Chase's Ointment is usually enough to convince anyone that there is nothing like it as a beautifier of the skin and as a means of overcoming painful and annoying itching skin diseases.

It is so pure and clean, so delightfully soothing and healing, and so pleasant to use that it soon finds a permanent place in every home where its merits become known. Sixty cents a box, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for a free copy of Dr. Chase's Recipes.

SECOND MAN NOW CONFESSES SLAYING

Mystery Deepens as to Who Took the Life of "Frenchie" Lauzon.

Lansing, Mich., May 27.—Henry Swartz, for several years an inmate of the Clinton County poorhouse, has confessed, according to the officers, that he killed "Frenchie" Lauzon, keeper of a gambling room here, eleven years ago. He is the second man to confess the crime within six months. Charles Miller, who is serving a term in Marquette Prison for forgery, having told the officials last January that he was responsible for Lauzon's death.

Chief of Police Behrend, and Prosecutor Foster here in St. Johns today, interviewing Swartz in the county jail there, with a view of clearing up the mystery surrounding the two alleged confessions.

The body of Lauzon was found in his room with the skull beaten in. A piece of gas pipe, which had been used by the assailant was found near by. The man had been dead three days. About a dozen men were taken into custody as suspects, but the crime was never fastened on anyone. During the investigation, however, Alonzo Perry, a negro, told such conflicting stories that he was convicted of perjury and served a 3-year term in prison.

According to the keeper of the Clinton County poorhouse, Swartz had been in mental distress for a week and in the keeper's endeavors to assist the man the story came out. Swartz told the keeper that he went to Lauzon's room late at night, beat the other over the head with the gas pipe and stole the money the gambler had in his possession.

25 FOREIGN MINERS FORCIBLY DEPORTED

Put Out of Durham, Ga., for Intimidating Mine Officials.

Durham, Ga., May 26.—Twenty-five Italian miners accused of intimidating the officials of the Durham Coal and Coke Company's mines here, and who were this morning arrested by state troops, sent here by Governor Brown, were deported, without trial, this afternoon.

The men left at 4 o'clock in the custody of Sheriff Germany and armed deputies of Walker County, and will be released at Chickamauga, Ga., on their promise not to return to Durham.

A clash between Capt. Melkelham, of the Lindale Military Company, and Germany resulted in delaying the departure of the prisoners for more than an hour. Capt. Melkelham demanded of the sheriff a receipt for his prisoners, and not only was the receipt refused, but he declined to accept the custody of the men without warrants having first been sworn out charging the men with some crime against the state.

Finally Col. James W. English, jun., of Atlanta, one of the principal owners of the mines, and his attorney, Col. Earl Jackson, swore out warrants charging the men with some crime against the state, and they were taken to the custody of the men without warrants having first been sworn out charging the men with some crime against the state.

ERIE'S NEW TARIFF

Average Increase in Commutation Fares Is Ten Per Cent.

Washington, May 26.—Formal announcement was made today through the filing of tariffs with the interstate commerce commission that the Erie Railroad and its subsidiaries would advance their commutation passenger rates. The advance will become effective on June 26.

The new tariffs apply to all stations east of Dunkirk and west of Bridge, N. Y., not only on the main line of the Erie, but also on the lines of the New Jersey and New York Railroad Company, the New York, Susquehanna and Western, Wilkes-Barre and Easton, and the Bath and Hammondsport Railroad.

Nothing in the tariffs filed with the commission explains the advances or the reductions.

The average increase in commutation fares is about 10 per cent, although the increases range from 5 to 30 per cent. Such reductions as are made are less than 5 per cent.

It is believed by the officials of the interstate commission that the Erie's commutation rates are about what the New York lines generally have agreed upon.

It is expected that other roads will file their new tariffs within a few days.

BANKER MORSE ILL

Wife Says He Will Not Live to Serve His Term.

New York, May 26.—Word was received from Atlanta, Ga., today to the effect that Charles W. Morse, the banker, is ill and has been removed to the hospital of the Federal Prison. He is said to be suffering from a serious form of kidney trouble.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I know he will never live to be a free man unless something is done at once to ward giving him his freedom," she said. "He has not been a well man in years and the only way he was kept from being worse was by his constant exercising. He rode horseback a great deal and did much walking. I intend to go to Atlanta next week, as soon as I am permitted to see my husband again. The condition of his health greatly alarms me."

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

LICENSE MATTER NOT DECIDED

Clergymen Still Fighting Permits of Two Amherstburg Hotels.

Windsor, May 27.—No decision regarding the licensing of the two hotels near Amherstburg, over which legal proceedings are threatened by the Methodist clergy of Windsor district, was reached by the liquor license commissioners of South Essex at their meeting in Essex yesterday afternoon. The commissioners and cab horses and more than seventy sioners discussed the situation and adjourned until May 31.

While the members of the board voted in favor of granting the two licenses at their annual meeting, the licenses were not actually issued, owing to the fact that Inspector James Smyth refused to sign the documents. The hotel-keepers have been doing business merely on the strength of the resolution passed by the commissioners, and there is accordingly some prospect that the demands of the preachers may be met.

The preachers were not represented at yesterday's meeting, but will probably await the decision of the board before taking any further action.

Authorities On Correct Dress

Three Factories and Seven Stores

The Mark of Individuality

If "Distinctive" Clothes cost no more than those without character, then why not wear the former? The exclusive fashions of GRAFTON & CO. are no more expensive than the mediocre ready-to-wear garments sold elsewhere.

Their individuality appeals to you because your ideas are incorporated, and they have all the points of distinctiveness permitted by propriety and fashion.

GRAFTON'S CLOTHING is both radical and conservative in style, but never "freaky." Every line and curve shows the master tailor's skill, guided by the premier designer's prolific mind. There is no better way to be certain of this than to see it and let us try it on you.

GOOD WOOL MODEL SUITS that others sell at $8.50 to $30, we sell at $6.50 to $20

GOOD WOOL MODEL OVERCOATS that others sell at $8.50 to $30.00, we sell at $6.50 to $20

KARLTON HATS AT $2.00.
STETSON HATS AT $4.00.

SATURDAY SPECIALS

A Special Sale of Little Lots of Suits 1-3 to 1-4 Less Than Our Regular Prices

These Suits are the accumulation of little lots and odds and ends left from the past month's selling. Many of the best styles are included, and you can buy them at one-fourth to one-third below our usual prices, which were already 25 per cent or more less than those of other stores. Not all sizes in each line, but all sizes in the collection, and any man or young man can be fitted.

Our regular $8.50 and $10 Suits at $5.98
Our regular $12 and $14 Suits at $8.48
Our regular $15 and $16 Suits at $9.98

BOYS' WASH SHIRTWAISTS and BLOUSES, 25c

regular value 35c, Saturday special

BOYS' WASH SUITS, in Buster and Blouse style; regular value $1.00, Saturday 75c

100 BUFFALO BILL SUITS, made of khaki duck, trimmed with red; to fit ages 4 to 7 years. Regular 50c

value $1.00, Saturday

Saturday Specials in Furnishings

We have set ourselves a mighty hot pace to keep up in these Saturday offerings of Men's Shirts, Neckties and other things, but we flatter ourselves that today's news is a little bit better than ever adorned until May 31.

While the members of the board voted in favor of granting the two licenses at their annual meeting, the licenses were not actually issued, owing to the fact that Inspector James Smyth refused to sign the documents. The hotel-keepers have been doing business merely on the strength of the resolution passed by the commissioners, and there is accordingly some prospect that the demands of the preachers may be met.

The preachers were not represented at yesterday's meeting, but will probably await the decision of the board before taking any further action.

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I know he will never live to be a free man unless something is done at once to ward giving him his freedom," she said. "He has not been a well man in years and the only way he was kept from being worse was by his constant exercising. He rode horseback a great deal and did much walking. I intend to go to Atlanta next week, as soon as I am permitted to see my husband again. The condition of his health greatly alarms me."

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I know he will never live to be a free man unless something is done at once to ward giving him his freedom," she said. "He has not been a well man in years and the only way he was kept from being worse was by his constant exercising. He rode horseback a great deal and did much walking. I intend to go to Atlanta next week, as soon as I am permitted to see my husband again. The condition of his health greatly alarms me."

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I know he will never live to be a free man unless something is done at once to ward giving him his freedom," she said. "He has not been a well man in years and the only way he was kept from being worse was by his constant exercising. He rode horseback a great deal and did much walking. I intend to go to Atlanta next week, as soon as I am permitted to see my husband again. The condition of his health greatly alarms me."

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I know he will never live to be a free man unless something is done at once to ward giving him his freedom," she said. "He has not been a well man in years and the only way he was kept from being worse was by his constant exercising. He rode horseback a great deal and did much walking. I intend to go to Atlanta next week, as soon as I am permitted to see my husband again. The condition of his health greatly alarms me."

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I know he will never live to be a free man unless something is done at once to ward giving him his freedom," she said. "He has not been a well man in years and the only way he was kept from being worse was by his constant exercising. He rode horseback a great deal and did much walking. I intend to go to Atlanta next week, as soon as I am permitted to see my husband again. The condition of his health greatly alarms me."

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I know he will never live to be a free man unless something is done at once to ward giving him his freedom," she said. "He has not been a well man in years and the only way he was kept from being worse was by his constant exercising. He rode horseback a great deal and did much walking. I intend to go to Atlanta next week, as soon as I am permitted to see my husband again. The condition of his health greatly alarms me."

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I know he will never live to be a free man unless something is done at once to ward giving him his freedom," she said. "He has not been a well man in years and the only way he was kept from being worse was by his constant exercising. He rode horseback a great deal and did much walking. I intend to go to Atlanta next week, as soon as I am permitted to see my husband again. The condition of his health greatly alarms me."

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I know he will never live to be a free man unless something is done at once to ward giving him his freedom," she said. "He has not been a well man in years and the only way he was kept from being worse was by his constant exercising. He rode horseback a great deal and did much walking. I intend to go to Atlanta next week, as soon as I am permitted to see my husband again. The condition of his health greatly alarms me."

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I know he will never live to be a free man unless something is done at once to ward giving him his freedom," she said. "He has not been a well man in years and the only way he was kept from being worse was by his constant exercising. He rode horseback a great deal and did much walking. I intend to go to Atlanta next week, as soon as I am permitted to see my husband again. The condition of his health greatly alarms me."

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I know he will never live to be a free man unless something is done at once to ward giving him his freedom," she said. "He has not been a well man in years and the only way he was kept from being worse was by his constant exercising. He rode horseback a great deal and did much walking. I intend to go to Atlanta next week, as soon as I am permitted to see my husband again. The condition of his health greatly alarms me."

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

Handsomeness Summer Shirts at 50c

Roomy in cut, neat in making, good-looking black and white stripe effects, and many colorings in Chambray and Madras Shirtings. Especially good value at this price.

Men's Silk Neckwear at 25c

200 dozen of specially selected silks, usually put in 50c Ties, we are able to sell Saturday at just half the price.

Men's Hosiery and Underwear With a Snug Profit to the Purchaser

MEN'S HOSIERY, 35c (THREE PAIRS FOR $1.00), REGULAR 50c PAIR.

Imported Fancy and Plain Black Cashmere Half Hose, spliced heels and toes, pair 35c

19c (THREE PAIR FOR 50c), REGULAR 25c PAIR.

Imported sheer thin genuine Lisle Half Hose, full fashioned goods, pair 19c

MEN'S UNDERWEAR.

25c for fine Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers, sizes 32 to 42, as good as some stores sell for 50c; according to our standard they are 35c goods. Saturday, per garment 25c

35c (Three garments for $1.00) for fine white mesh, Zimmer-knit, short sleeves and knee-length Drawers, the usual 50c grade, Saturday 35c

COME TO THE STORE WITH THE LARGEST STOCK AND BEST VALUES.

adorned until May 31.

While the members of the board voted in favor of granting the two licenses at their annual meeting, the licenses were not actually issued, owing to the fact that Inspector James Smyth refused to sign the documents. The hotel-keepers have been doing business merely on the strength of the resolution passed by the commissioners, and there is accordingly some prospect that the demands of the preachers may be met.

The preachers were not represented at yesterday's meeting, but will probably await the decision of the board before taking any further action.

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I know he will never live to be a free man unless something is done at once to ward giving him his freedom," she said. "He has not been a well man in years and the only way he was kept from being worse was by his constant exercising. He rode horseback a great deal and did much walking. I intend to go to Atlanta next week, as soon as I am permitted to see my husband again. The condition of his health greatly alarms me."

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I know he will never live to be a free man unless something is done at once to ward giving him his freedom," she said. "He has not been a well man in years and the only way he was kept from being worse was by his constant exercising. He rode horseback a great deal and did much walking. I intend to go to Atlanta next week, as soon as I am permitted to see my husband again. The condition of his health greatly alarms me."

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I know he will never live to be a free man unless something is done at once to ward giving him his freedom," she said. "He has not been a well man in years and the only way he was kept from being worse was by his constant exercising. He rode horseback a great deal and did much walking. I intend to go to Atlanta next week, as soon as I am permitted to see my husband again. The condition of his health greatly alarms me."

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I know he will never live to be a free man unless something is done at once to ward giving him his freedom," she said. "He has not been a well man in years and the only way he was kept from being worse was by his constant exercising. He rode horseback a great deal and did much walking. I intend to go to Atlanta next week, as soon as I am permitted to see my husband again. The condition of his health greatly alarms me."

Continuing, Mrs. Morse said that the year in the Tombs, together with the six months that Mr. Morse has already served in the Atlanta prison, had undermined his health to an alarming degree.

When Mr. Morse was asked today regarding the report, she said: "It is true that Mr. Morse is ill. He looked very ill when I saw him last week, and was under the care of a physician. If he is in the hospital I have received no word about it as yet, but this is no doubt due to the fact that he can only communicate with me once in two weeks and the two weeks are not up until next Monday."

As Mrs. Morse talked of her husband's condition she suddenly broke down and began to weep. "I