Leading Liberals of Owen Sound Ask Him to Run.

Owen Sound. Nov. 1.—Hon. Mr. MacKay arrived home this evening, and was immediately waited upon by about one hundred leading Liberals of the town, who, while regretting that circumstances had induced him to resign the leadership, congratulated him upon his absolutely unselfish course and strongly insisted that he should immediately consent to have his name announced as a candidate in North Grey. The feeling here, regardless of politics, is that few public men in the province have in recent years sacrificed as much as Mr. MacKay in the service of the public. Mr. MacKay's straightforward course of action at the Toronto meeting has made him scores of friends in Owen Sound in the Conservative ranks.
