

PAGE FOR ADVERTISER WOMEN READERS

10 dozen Waists on sale.

Were $1.49, $1.75 and $2.00.

Open front or open back.

Choice of many styles, sizes clearing at $1.19

House Dresses, 98c

cuff, trimmed with ratine or

Silks, 69c

cadet, tan, sky, mauve, etc.

Ready-to-wears,

40-inch White Ratine, in good quality, which washes perfectly; fashionable for suits, skirts, coats, dresses, waists or trimmings. Price,

Flowered Crepe,

need no ironing; rosebud design, in colors on plain ground for 98c

Choice of slipover or button-front style, trimmings of White Ratine, 75c Yd. Sale of Waists, $1.19

per yard 75¢ 34 to 42. On sale tables, now

Pretty Flowered Crepes for Good quality Percale House

summer dresses, waists, etc. Dresses, in very pretty style,

They wash and wear well and low collar, 3/4-sleeves with of white, pink or champagne. pique, sizes 34 to 40. On sale

Per yard 12½¢ at 98¢

CHILDREN'S WASH DRESSES, 50c,

75c and 90c

of prints, zephyrs, duck, etc. Very dainty designs; good colorings that wash. Choice of many different styles. Just the Dresses for summer wear. Buy a supply tomorrow, at Children's Wear Department-Ground Floor.

Women's Nightgowns $1 Yard Colored Raw

Special values on this table Yard-Wide Colored Shan-

for the balance of this week. tung Silk, in copenhagen, torchon lace and insertion or This is a fine pure silk Shanembroidery, or French em- tung and is recommended for broidered gowns of good qual- wear and washing; 5 yards ity and pretty designs, all makes a dress. Regular $1.00 sizes. On sale at...... 98¢ a yard value, on sale at. . 69¢

50¢, 75¢, 90¢ and $1.00

Sizes 1 to 6 years in these goods; serviceable Dresses,

Fancy Vegetables Main&Collyer

New Beets, bunch ... 5c

New Carrots, per bunch, 8c

Tomatoes, extra fancy, hothouse, per lb. ... 30c

Tomatoes, Imported, per lb. ... 18c

Spinach, per peck 10c Lettuce, head, each Lettlce, leaf, large Lettuce, leaf, medium New Cabbage, small each New Cabbage, medium, each New Cabbage, large, each Asparagus, selected, bunch ... Green Onlons, Dutch sets, bunch Mint, bunch 46
Parsley, moss curled, bunch ... 56
Rhubarb, bunch ... 46

Minimum charge, 25 cents. Mail STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE P

Advertiser Patterns

9931-A Good "Over All" Apron-Ladles'

This simple, serviceable brey, or lawn, and with the short sleeves and round neck is quite comfortable. It is easy to adjust and simple in the making. The closing is at the side front. The fullness at the waistline in back is held under the belt, which fastens under the The pattern is cut in six sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches, bust measure. It requires 5% yards of 36-inch material for a 36-inch size. At the lower edge the apron measures about 1% yards. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver

PATTERN DEPARTMENT OF THE ADVERTISER. Please send above-mentioned pattern, as per directions given below, to Province Age (if child's or misses' patterns).....

CAUTION-Be careful to inclose above CAUTION—Be careful to inclose above illustration, and send size of pattern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure you need only mark 32, 34, or what ever it may be. When in waist measure 22, 24, 26, or whatever it may be. If a skirt, give waist and length measure. When misses' or child's pattern, write only the figure representing the age. It When misses' or child's pattern, write only the figure representing the age. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than one week from the date of order. The price of each pattern is 10 cents, in cash or in postage stamps.

B-I-T-S From Books

"Life did change for Tom and Maggie; and yet they were not wrong in believing that the thoughts and loves of these first years would always make part of their lives. We could never have loved the earth so well if we had no childhood in it-if it were not the earth where the same flowers come up again every spring that we used to gather with our tiny fingers as we sat lisping to ourselves on the grass—the same hips and haws on the autumn hedgerows-the red-brez s that we used to call "God' birds" because they did harm to the precious crops. What novelty is worth that sweet monotony where everything is known, and loved because it is known!"

"Mill on the Floss." George Eliot.

Rhubarb and Orange Marmalade. One quart rhubarb cut in small pieces, four oranges peeled and cut fine, six supfuls of sugar. Take orange peel and black? run through meat grinder. Make syrut of the sugar and some water unthreads. Put ingredients in and simmer for an hour. Put in jelly glasses and seal with paraffin;

GRAY HAIR

pr. Tremain's Natural Hair Restorative used as directed is guaranteed to restore gray hair to natural color or money refunded. Positively not a dye and non-injurious. On sals at Anderson & Nelles' drug store, 268 Dundas street, London, Pricee, $1.00 (postpaid). Write Tremain supply Co., Dept. T., Toronto.

Here's An Old Recitation

by two readers, and althoungh it is rather long for publication, we are printing it today.

Which shall it be?-which shall it be? I looked at John-John looked at me. -Dear patient John! who loves me yet As well as though my locks were jet,-And when I found that I must speak My voice seemed strangely slow and weak:-

"Tell me again what Robert said"; And then I listening bent my head. "This is the letter" "I will give

A house and land while you shall live, If in return from out your seven One child for aye to me is given." looked at John's old garments worn

I thought of all that John had borne, Of poverty, of work, and care, Which I, though willing, could not share I thought of seven mouths to feed, Of seven little children's need, And then of this.

"Come, John," said I, We'll choose among them as they lie Asleep"; so, walking hand in hand, Dear John and I surveyed our band. First to the crib we lightly stepped, Where Lillian, the baby, slept; Her damp curls lay like gold alight,-A glory gainst the pillow white Softly her father stooped to lay His rough hand down in loving way, When dream or whisper made her stir, And huskily said John,-"Not her!"

We stooped beside the trundle-bed,

Which Shall it Be?

And one long ray of lamp-light shed Athwart the boyish faces there, In sleep so pitiful and fair; I saw on Jamie's rough red cheek 'He's but a baby too," said I, And kissed him as we hurried by Pale, patient Robbie's angel-face

> Poor Dick! bad Dick! our wayward son,-Turbulent, reckless, idle one,— Could he be spared? 'Nay,—He who gave Bids us befriend him to his grave; Only a mother's heart can be Patient enough for such as he; And so," said John, "I would not dare To send him from her bedside prayer.

> And knelt by Mary, child of love,said to John,-quite silently He lifted up a curl that lay Across her cheek in wilful way, And shook his head. "Nay, love, not possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is imppossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered asily?

this nature. Do any of our readers know? was a church ceremony, then one would 2. Get an ounce of sweet almond oil, be necessary.

3. Clifford, able counsel; Gladys, charming; Erle, princely; Victor, a conqueror;

List for a Bride. Dear Miss Grey-If it would not be too muchtr ouble would-you kindly send me a complete list of towels, etc., that a bride-to-be should have stored away in her 'green trunk"? Also several suitable names for a cance. MISS V.

A .- I cannot give private answers, as you request. Here is a list that would be useful if you were beginning married life in a modest way: Two pairs hemstitched sheets, 3 pairs of plain cotton sheets; 2 pairs of hemstitched pillow cases, 6 bathtowels, 6 face towels, & common towels, 4 roller towels, 1 dozen fine table napkins, 1 dozen of coarser linen, 2 fine tablecloths, 3 common cloths, 2 or 3 teacloths, 12 dishtowels, dusters, floorcloths, dollies, dres-

2. A name for a canoe! How would one kin denough to have it published. Yours sincerely, A BUSY MOTHER. Three little words you often see Are articles, a, an, and the.

A noun's the name of anything Adjective tell the kind of noun, Instead of nouns the pronouns stand-Verbs tell something to be done-How things are done the adverbs tell, As slowly, quickly, ill or well. Conjunctions join the words together, As men and women, wind or weather. The preposition stands before speech Which reading, writing, speaking teach. Busy Mother to send the verses, and I

Dear Miss Grey-I come to you once will be silly and cry. Miss Grey, how can I overcome this peculiar notion? I feel happy in the thought of it. I hope that the vows I take before God and man will ever fairs. These subjects of Gemini may

2. As I have been in mourning since suit the occasion, as I don't care to be in oon a nice time to get married? 4. I am going to have it at my cousin's place. I expect to have between 20 and 25. As I don't know much about this solemn ceremony, could you suggest how should be dressed?

Only one more,-our eldest lad, Trusty and truthful—good and glad— So like his father, "No, John, no!— I cannot, will not, let him go."

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

in turn. No letters can be answered privately.]

Found Old Spoon.

you if you know whether a coin-silver spoon, dated 1775, with the picture of 'Bunker Hill' monument, and the words, "Bunker Hill." printed on it would be of any value. Father found it buried deep in the earth while digging in the garden provement. Virginia, a virgin or pure one.

"Meteor," "Elf?"

As school, or garden, hoop or swing. As great, small, pretty, white or brown. His head, her face, your arm, my hand To read, count, laugh, sing, jump or run.

The noun, as in or through the door. The interjection shows surprise, As Oh, how pretty; Ah, how wise! The whole are called nine parts of Ans .- I am sure It is very kind of this am glad to print them for the benefit of youthful readers.

more for advice and counsel, and I do hope you will be able to help me.

February, do you think white satin would 3. Do you think 5 o'clock in the after-

5. Last of all, could you suggest a wedding breakfast not too expensive?

SWEET BRIDE-TO-BE. the same feeling in varying degrees, but usually at the time of the ceremony, something—is it womanly pride, I wonder A .- 1. I suppose that all brides have -comes to the rescue, and the bride comes through with flying honors. I am

A tear undried. Ere John could speak Still in his sleep bore suffering's trace. "No-for a thousand crowns, not him!" We whispered, while our eyes were dim.

Then stole we softly up above, 'Perhaps for her 'twould better be,"

The while my heart beat audibly.

And so we wrote, in courteous way, We could not give one child away; And afterward toll lighter seemed, Thinking of that of which we dreamed Happy, in truth that not one face We missed from its accustomed place; Thankful to work for all the seven, Trusting the rest to One in heaven.

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as

Dear Miss Grey-I am writing to ask cheer up!

Lee, Victor and Virginia? ALABAMA. fortunately I am not versed in values of as you are to be married in a house. If it A .- 1. This is very interesting, but unser covers, traycloths, etc. of these do: "Kewpie," "Arrow," "Clytle,"

Sends Grammar Rhyme.

Dear Cynthia Grey,-You will find inclosed a copy of a rhyme that may be of some use to some of our beys and Measurement-Bust...... Waist..... girls during the coming examinations. Have given it to a number, but thought more could be helped if you would be Bride Feels Nervous.

I feel rather nervous, as I am afraid when the time comes I will faint. I feel as if I be true.

2. It partly depends, of course, on the nearness of the deceased relative. If very closely related, and you wished to wear white, I would suggest white or Ivory crepe, rather than satin. 3. Yes. 4. Your question is rather vague. Perhaps you desire just a simple costume for breaking and chipping, as mine do so the ceremony. If so, a veil need not be robe is not complete unless it contains worn, and have your dress made simply a plain tailored frock. without a train; wear white satin slippers ing of these names: Clifford, Gladys, Erle, with silk stockings, long white kid gloves, of these garments, and the coat genand carry a bouquet of white flowers in erally is a short cut-away, showing the bend of the arm. Do not wear a hat, waistcoat of some fancy material.

Apron—Ladies and once a day, after scrubbing the finger ends with soapy, warm water, pour a bit repast would not be called a "breakfast," of the oil in a saucer and soak the nails but rather "supper" or "luncheon." If you 5. If the ceremony was at 5 o'clock, the ites. In a short time want it inexpensive, why not have sandwiches, cake, ice cream and fruit, coffee and lemonade? This would be very dainty and pleasing. I think. sucker, linene, galatea, gingham, cham-

And, of course, I wish you success, and better still, every happiness, Sweet Brideto-be.

THE HOROSCOPE

FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1914.

This is not a fortunate day, for astrologers find that Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus and the Sun are all in adverse

During this rule the seers advise men and women to devote their energies to routine affairs. It is held as a time especially unlucky for those who deal with electrical machinery or with explosives. Loss of life s prognosticated. The aspect is not auspicious for travel. Railway and motor car acci- members of the board are expressing dents are said to be more common than usual while this configuration prevails. Ing their aid and support to the work

The death of American tourists, who are travelling through Europe in their own cars, is predicted. As Uranus is supposed to govern the inventive faculty, this is a particularly unlucky time to test any new machine.

Warning is given against aeroplanes and halloons. Men who wield power, those who hold government positions and dictators in financial matters, are under a malefie

There is an influence believed to operate most unfavorably for plans and schemes of importance, unless they are kept secret. Disappointment is threatened for those who communicate their ideas to friends or business associates. It is not an auspicious day for disclosing intentions or soliciting co-operation in any enterprise.

Foreign astrologers prophesy that financial questions will disturb states. men. Changes in the President's cabinet are persistently indicated.

Women are to occupy the public atthose in positions of social prominence will ally themselves with labor movenents of an unusual character. Shipping affairs are again subject an evil sway. Immigration will offer new problems. Wrecks are foretold.

Children should be carefully guarded

during the next few months, as the stars are said to be peculiarly threatening toward the young. Perils await them places of amusement. Persons whose birthrate it is have an omen that is not altogether pleasant. 1. I am getting married on August 3. They should beware of changes and should not make long journeys. should concentrate on business affairs. Children born on this day may be discontented in disposition. Both boys and girls should be trained in business afalso partake of the qualities of Cancer

(Copyright, 1914, by the McClure News-

the Crab.

"TAILOR-MADES"

Yes; the severely tailored suit is still worn. Many women think their ward-

This year blue is the favorite color Direct Importers

LOCAL ITEMS

Report Shows 1,164 Visits Made During the Past Three Months.

At a recent meeting of the board of the Victorian Order of Nurses, it was shown by the nurses' report that during the past three months the number of cases nursed were 212; number of visits made, 1,164; besides the care of 72 infants; 88 casual visits, and 79 night calls. This will give some idea of the work done by the nurses during the three months. Only those engaged in the different societies organized for the benefit and relief of the poor and needy, the sick and suffering of our city, can realize the good that is being done. The their gratitude to those who are lend-of the order. The girls of Park School before closing for the summer, sent a generous donation to the funds of the order. The members of this school have given an enthusiastic support to the torian Order ever since this branch was organized, and although each year a number graduate and go out of the school, those coming after take up the work and further it with their help. Such continual assistance is much appreciated as expenses, for the main-tenance and relief of the Victorian work is continual. The board will not meet again until September, unless notified by the

ASHWORTH-COOKE. A wedding of interest to many Londoners is recorded in the Toronto World of vesterday: The smartest wedding of the season took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in St. Simon's Church, when the ention in a sensational manner, and marriage was solemnized of Alyce Lydia, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cooke, to Mr. James Johnston Ashworth. The church was decorated with lilies, white peonies, palms and ferns, two large stands of the lilies and peonies being used in the chancel. The Rev. Edward Cayley read the service, Dr. J. W. S. Harrison played the wedding march, and Mrs. John Macdonald sang "All Mine Alone" most exquisitely during the signing of the register.

The bride, who was brought in and given away by her father, looked very lovely in her wedding gown of ivory liberty satin, silver tissue and point lace over a petticoat of lace. The corsage and sleeves were of the point lace, the skirt and train being of the satin. Almost the entire gown was veiled with exquisite white and silver tissue draped from the shoulder, ending down the length of the train in a large tassel of brilliants and crystal, and falling below the knees in front, where it was again finished with two long brilliant and crystal tassels. The gown was girdled with satin, a large butterfly bow holding the silver drapery at the back. The veil was worn off the face and arranged with a small coronet of lace nd orange blossoms, and as the bride valked up the aisle carrying an armful of madonna lilies she looked very stately. Her young sister, Miss Norah Cooke, was the only bridesmaid and looked very weet in a frock of palest yellow accordon-pleated ninon over lace with girdle and sash of satin to match, and small hat of yellow crepe de chine with yellow reses. he carried an armful of golden gate Mr. Eustace G. Bird was best man, and

MakeYour Porch Cool Comfortable

With Aerolux Porch Shades you can make your verandah ten degrees cooler; always shady and comfortable. No Porch Shade made is as good as this. They cannot blow in the wind.

All shades.—Kingsmill's Carpet Store, Carling Street. JAPANESE MATTINGS

Ask us for prices. All sizes.

AND GRASS RUGS.

It's New If It's Here

lon, brother of the bride, and Mr. W. H. Ashworth, brother of the groom. held at the residence of Mr. and Cooke, Howard street, after which Mr. and Mrs. Ashworth left to spend a month at the seaside and in the Berkshire Hills. The bride's going-away dress was a smart tailor-made gray cheviot, and Panama hat. Amongst many beautiful gifts received was a magnificent cabinet of silver from the president, vice-president and directors of the Canadian General Electric Company, of which Mr. Ashworth is assistant general-manager, and a handsome silver tea service and tray from the managers of the company. UNION MOTHERS' CLUB. The Union Mothers' Clubs of the city variety. will meet at 8 o'clock on Friday evening for the last time this season, in the

Alexandra School. Annual reports from each club will be presented, and a large attendance is requested. ON IRONING DAY. Standing upon la cushion, preferably a horse-hair one, will rest the tired feet of a worker whose tasks demand further standing. A crease in a newly-ironed collar or cuff should be damped, smoothed out and ironed again at once. If the irons stick add to the starch a lump of sugar and a piece of butter

A good-looking coat may be made of white cotton corduroy or white pique, finished around all edges with wide embroidered scallops.

half the size of the sugar.

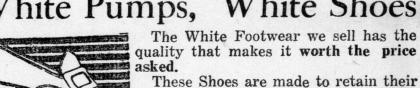

Flower Trimmed Cane for Bride Many bridesmaids will carry a flower-trimmed cane instead of the usual shower

Dry Goods, Carpets, Etc.

Ashworth, brother of the groom. After the ceremony a reception was need at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. White Pumps, White Shoes

Colonial Pumps

Either cut steel or plain buckles. Big $1.50 to $5.00

You will agree the Children's White Footwear In Strap Shoes, Boots and Sandals.

Ladies' Button Boots

shape and hold their good appearance.

COME HERE FOR STYLE.

Buckskin and Canvas. Extra Values.

$2.00 to $5.00

75c to $1.75 styles are newest. CASSELMAN BROS.

171 Dundas Street.

Victoria Home Bake Shop 570 Richmond St.-Phone 4778. Now open and prepared to supply home bakery of the most delicious quality. MI MI Mrs. Baxter.

Laundry Work tell your friends-if dissatisfied tell us.

strong enough and big enough to support you and your friends. Tested Once Trusted Always Parisian Laundry PHONES 558, 559.

J. CHIERA, Manager.

That's our platform—a platform constructed on an "if," but it's

Electric Fixture

ywt

Special A big 24-inch Dome, in three colors—green, amber and blood orange—fitted with a 42-inch chain and a three-light cluster. A handsome dome for any dining-room, all wired and hung free of charge. Your choice, this week only, a big $13.75

ELECTRICAL DEPARTMENT,

63-265 Dundas St.-Near Wellington

WIGHTMAN and VON SCHILROTH will hold a sale of beautiful

4 Doors East of Richmond.

Swiss Mull, French Batiste, Linen, Ratine, Embroidery Laces and Ribbons. A few pieces of handsome old suiting left over from season's trade. 440 Park avenue.

THE OLD STRAW HAT

MADE NEW

Use Penslar Cleaning Capsules,

price 10c. W. R. LUTZ North End Druggist. We Express Parcels to any point in Canada. Goods called for and delivered to any point in city. AMERICAN DRY CLEANING AND

755 Dundas Street. ywt Phone 1959. COCOA

DYE WORKS.

Sole Agents for GURNEY OXFORD RANGES Smallman & Ingram

-Eat More Bread-It is the most nutritious and most economic alof allfoods. The best bread is made with Fleischmann's Yeast

ANSHINE KITCHEN MAGIC