New York, Aug. 20.—Johnny Wilson and Harry Greb got down to real hard work today in preparation for the work today in preparation for the solution of the solution of the middleweight title at the solution of the solution of the middleweight title at Grand Rapids.

BATIONAL LEAGUE work today in preparation for the Aug. 31 bout for the middleweight title on which Wilson has maintained a drowning grasp for some years. If Eva Tanguay could fust be at the ringside and calliope, her old-time favorite, "I don't care," the party would be complete so far as the majority of the fanare concerned. For the majority of the latter will attend not to see somebody win, but somebody licked and a good many don't care which "price" fighter it is.

win, but somebody licked and a good many don't care which "price" fighter it is.

Nelther of the boxers rival the, movie heroes in popularity here. The fans have not forgotten the unsatisfactory battle Wilson put up against Bryan Downey at Boyle's Thirty Acres on Labor Day, in 1921. That was the present champion's last appearance in the ring in this neck of the woods, and while there was no question that he had the better of the argument in the arena, the disgusted spectators maintained that he showed little evidence of championship quality. Wilson is a southpaw and was supposed to have a dangerous punch in his left wing. But he didn't show it. Greb's peculiar bounding style of attack has mitigated against his popularity. Some of his opponents have claimed that he has hit them everywhere from the knees up to the narrow open space which keeps the hair out of their eyes. The Pittsburger's system is to turn loose a machine gun burst of punches on the thory that if he receives enough ammunition some are bound to hit the mark. Foul fighting undoubtedly is far from his thoughts, but his rough tactics have failed to endear him to the Gatham public.

A good time, therefore, should be had by all. The audlence won't take it much to heart so long as somebody is licked, and as that is what they go for, they ought to be well satisfied.

Down the Line In All Sports BISHOP'S HOMER

Clarke Pittenger, the snappy infielder who was always a favorite with the fans while starring at third for the Tees of a few seasons ago, is a star on the Boston Red Sox. Yesterday he twice supplied the needed hit to score runs stranded on the bases—and incidentally help beat the Tygers.

Pitt made the big jump into the majors from the London class B team in one attempt. He looked so good from the start that Duffy kept him although at the time he could find no regular berth for the youthful QUEEN CITY LOSES phenom. He got into games here and there during his first season up there and kept a couple of regular infielders continually on their toes lest they should lose their bread and butter tickets.

> He is appearing very regularly now at second base. He is fielding cleanly, and covers a world of ground. He is lead-off man in the batting order, and is still worrying pitchers at the plate. Yesterday he had two hits out of five times at bat, one of them a double, and both bingles punched

MRS. BRYAN, VANCOUVER, GIVES TALK AT ST. MARYS

Special to The Advertiser. St. Marys, Aug. 20.-Mrs. Bryan, formerly of St. Marys, and an energetic worker of the St. Marys Methodist Church some years ago, gave a brief talk on Sunday afternoon to the Sunday school. Mrs. Bryan is now superintendent of a Methodist Sunday school in a suburb of Van-couver, and was president of the Women's Suffrage League of that province when the women gained the right to vote. She emphasized the big difference between the Sun-day school problems of Vancouver and of those in St. Marys, or of any other eastern city or town. "The reason for this difference," she said, "is the foreign element, most Chine and Japanese, which has to be dealt with there."

Mrs. Bryan, in mentioning the women's suffrage movement, said that now that women are allowed to vote a great responsibility rests with them, and she hoped the women of Canada would meet that responsibility.
Mrs. Bryan is visiting in the but returns to friends in London shortly.
