WANT AD TIPS

A Hardware Store's Mail Orders

This Want Ad plan for hardware stores-proved sound in every detail-will boost local business besides bringing in mail orders from the country.

Run a weekly Want Ad-not once or twice, but regularly, throughout the season and year. Follow these general principles, which are culled from the long successful experience of other hardware stores with Want Ads:

1. Advertise quite a number of different articles. With each additional item you list, the chances grow that some among readers will find something they, at the moment, need. Old hardware Want Ad users frequently list as many as eighteen

2. List low to moderately-priced merchandise. The greater the proportion of things under $4, the higher the number of orders received, other things being equal.

3. Quote special prices. Give readers a price inducement to come to you or send a mail order.

4. List not slow sellers but seasonable items of popular demand. Preferably take articles which, within the store, are selling well.

5. Feature articles with advertised known names when practical. This will inspire confidence. When readers consider your prices, already knowing the quality, they will be able to appreciate value. 6 Put "Mail orders promptly filled" in your Want Ad. If you pay parcel post charges, say as much, otherwise ask readers to include postage. Fill orders promptly. Few things so much impress the mail order buyer as prompt shipment.

Needing things in a hurry, out-of-town people will learn to send to you. 7. Put in "Satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded."

This gains confidence. The foregoing is a nutshell description of one good hardware store Want Ad plan. Follow these rules, and you will have Want Ads with every chance of success.
