

MARJORY MOORE.

By Adeline Sargeant

"Come to me at once, and let me make a home for you, and shelter you from the dangers of the world," but he was stern to the momentary impulse. He had no home to offer her. Years might elapse before he could be in a position to guard her as he wished to do. Besides, he had no reason to suppose that she cared for him, he had scarcely realized that he cared for her, until he saw her again; and then he knew that the boyish fancy of his youth had never died away, and that he had never seen, never was likely to see, another woman whom he loved or wished to make his wife.

It was time, he felt, to turn the conversation into more ordinary channels. He made a remark about the beauty of the country in which Redwood Hall was situated, and Marjory responded with effusion. "I hadn't remembered that it was so beautiful," she said. "These wide Surrey views, with the blue-purple hills in the distance, are perfectly charming."

"My uncle has a good eye for them," said Felix.

"Do you see those long vistas in the woods round the house? It is he who has had them cut in that way, in avenues, as it were, so that you can see the sunset and the best views from certain points. A few years ago the trees round the house shut out every bit of view."

"Mr. Hyde has good taste," said Marjory.

"Yes, he has very good taste," said Felix, gravely, but the eyes of the two young people met, neither of them could restrain a smile. He is extremely kind," said Marjory, after a moment's pause, and with a gravity which Felix felt was meant to be almost a rebuke.

"Oh, yes," Felix agreed with her, "he is kind enough," but there was something in his recent which did not please the girl's ear.

"I am very grateful to Mr. Hyde," she said in a rather more distant tone, "for all that he has done for me, and one of the best things he did was to send me to Mrs. Bullen's before I went to Germany, and persuade her to take charge of me some times in the holidays. And now it is so nice that he has married her, and lets me come to see her sometimes. Oh, but I forgot, perhaps you don't like it as well?" with a questioning look.

"On the contrary," said Felix. "I am extremely pleased that he has made such a good choice, and that it gives us the opportunity of seeing more of you."

"Oh, but I shall not be here often," said the girl lightly. "I am much too busy to spend much of my time in a quiet little country village, you know."

"Have you any engagements in town?" Felix hazarded.

"I have several pupils," she said, "and I am trying to get engagements to play at concerts and at private parties. It is uphill work, but I am getting on very well so far; and by the bye, Mr. Hyde—"

"But you are not going to call me Mr. Hyde, are you?" said Felix, taking a bold plunge. "You call Mrs. Bullen, Mrs. Hyde, I mean, 'Aunt Mary,' do you not? and as she has married my uncle, I thought we might consider ourselves something like cousins."

"I had hoped for a trace of embarrassment or shyness in Marjory's reply, he was disappointed. She looked at him with lightning eyes and a pleased smile, he delicately curved mouth.

"That will be very nice," she said, "and I will most certainly do so."

"I should like it," she said, "if I could ask you where you lived in London, what you were doing?"

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

"I have just been to the office," she said, "and I have just been to the office."

ESSENTIAL FEATURES . . .

Quality, price and weight. You can get them if you buy Monsoon at the per pound. Follow the directions on the inside of the packet. The result will be certain to please you. Try it. All Grocers.

MONSOON

INDO-CEYLON TEA

MERITORIOUS PUPILS.

Promotions in Many Divisions of the Public Schools.

VICTORIA SCHOOL.

From Kindergarten to Grade I.

Truth Perry, Maggie Rowe, Fay J. Johnston, Mabel Hilbert, Pauline Stringer, Evelyn Jupp, Mary Weston, Myrtle Shannon, Mildred Barker, Gladys Robinson, Rovena Clarke, Myrtle Nugent, George Weber, Robert Macpherson, Martin Bluetner, King Bartlett, Eastace Allison, John Caldwell, Willie Kennedy, Wilfred Jones, Mervin Smith, Fred Treillock, Andy Weinton, Joe Hurley.

From Grade I to Grade II.

Robby Berry, Nora O'Gorman, Willie Generaux, Ollie Ross, Charlotte Hicks, Fred Widdowson, Ruth West, Ethel Dowdell, Minnie Gaud, Douglas Woods, George Mansbridge, Myles Hegate, Cecil Vandusen, Bert Allison, Mary Allison, Ella Evans, Josie Howe, Ethel Watson, Mabel Gledhill, George Smith, Lily Richardson, Edwin Chivas, Maurice, George Moisse, Alice Erwin, May Hurley, Stella Henderson, Eva Talbot.

From Grade II to Grade III.

Bessie Aitken, George Abel, Lillian Allison, Clyde Allison, Naomi Abel, Laura Brazier, Bert Brown, Irene Boyd, Alex. Chivas, George Dowdell, Fred Ewart, Alice Paveott, Addie Ferguson, Mabel Gledhill, Frank Hilbert, Ethel Johnson, Denevan Jones, Vera Keene, Stella Latta, George Murray, Keith Murray, Harry Mann, Percy Mann, Neil McCrimmon, Clifford McKay, Tracy Macpherson, Jack McLaren, Ted. Parnell, James Penny, Helen Petrick, Percy Read, Charlie Smith, Mary Striner, Ida Secombe, Nina Taylor, Morley Vandusen, Fred Walden, Sadie Watson, Fred, Weldon, Reggie Wilson, May West, Frank Walsh, William Woods, Mervyn Webb, Gilbert Young.

From Grade III to Grade IV.

Mamie Armstrong, Cecil Barker, Mabel Berry, Edith Betts, Willie Bayley, Fred. Bamed, Russell Bruce, Ketta Caldwell, Coral Caldwell, Naomi Colquhoun, Willie Darville, Mervyn Evans, Fred. Evans, Charlie Flitton, Aggie Gled, Mabel Hardie, Mamie Holt, Camille Holmes, Charlie Henderson, Anna Kennedy, Charlie Kalus, Pearl Leverton, Archie McAuley, Roy McKay, Jack McLean, Albert Mustill, Ed Mustill, Jessie Mitchell, Jean McCrimmon, Lena Noyes, Casey O'Gorman, Dan O'Gorman, Harley Pugh, Tom Petrick, Myra Parke, Pearl Parnell, Annie Parkin, Vivian Reeve, Gordon Reid, Harold Rennie, Arthur Steiner, Eddie Stabler, May Secombe, Ida Stringer, Maggie Scott, Ethel Todd, Edith Vanstone, Alice Wilson, Florence Wilson, Mabel Wattman.

WORTLE ROAD SCHOOL.

From Grade III to Grade IV.

Constance Borland, Beatrice Baker, Frank Burden, Charles Boyd, Charlie Clark, Arthur Collins, Arthur Dutton, Pearl Fox, Alice Moore, Gillian Mead, Eddie Marsh, Willie Newmans, Gertie Pate, Richie Ralph, Chester Speltigue, Harmon Westland, Lillie Westlake.

From Grade IV to Grade V.

Charlie Anderson, Cecil Bathurst, Willie Baker, Lillie Gardiner, Ethel Hennessy, Nellie Jupp, Frank Judd, Chauncey Jarvis, Walter Kettlewell, Edna Meyers, Edith MacIntyre, Jack MacElderen, Robert Mitchell, Charlie MacQueen, Beatrice Richards, Hilda Slater, Arthur Skelley, Christie Taylor, Robbie Thomson.

From Junior to Senior Grade II.

Nita Bowley, George Carrae, Charlie Campbell, Willie Collins, Cecil Hickson, Gertie Howe, Pearl MacIntyre, Mary Mitchell, Gavin Monahan, Ethel Ralph, Alfred Wilson, Albert Webber, Leah Westland.

From Transition to Part I.

Lloyd Mason, Flossie Moore, Agnes Ruddy, Ralph Slater, Letta Thomson, Lillie Vincent, Pearl Vanwick, Goldie Wheeler, Rhea Westlake.

From Kindergarten to Transition.

Mabel Ings, Rottie Davidson, Lola Allison, Violet Carr, Douglas Wright, Walter Dutton.

ABERDEEN SCHOOL.

From Grade I to Grade II.

January Examinations—Pearl Atkinson, Olive Beyer, George Beyer, Robbie Bolton, Lillie Comber, Robbie Davidson, Bert Fox, Harry Gregory, Henrietta Hackett, Winnie Howitt, Edna Hubbert, Charlie Ingham, Ernie Macpherson, Artie Millar, John McConoches, Norma McCrorie, Carrie Needham, Ethel Osborne, Teddy Owens, Blanche Robertson, Norman Ralph, George Templar, Vera Tilt, Myrtle Weir, Hugh Winslow.

June Examinations—Bessie Anderson, Eva Brunton, Edgar Cook, Ella Cook, George Craig, Percy Graham, Alice Hayes, Sadie Hulbert, Franklin Hopperton, Ida Johnson, Harry Lilliecrapp, Ethel Lloyd, Lizzie Maudsley, Claude McEwen, George Murray, Mary Mullins, George Murray, John McFarley, Edgar McFadden, George Patrick, Edith Pease, Charles Peterson, Willie Powell, George Pease, Nellie Reede, Grace Robbins, Willie Reeder, Rachel Server, Earle Starke, Percy Stuart, Mina Taylor, Flossie Temple, Carrie Winslow.

Recommended—John Gray, Willie Gravdon.

From Grade I. A. to I. B.

Easter Promotion—Daisy Biggs, Fred Burgess, Eva Brunton, Edgar Cook.

THE VICTIM OF CAREFULNESS.

From the Chicago Record.

The time when a man feels an impulse to do, and almost an impulse to swear. Is when he inquires for a thing and is told: "I put it away somewhere."

Somewhere! Somewhere! The thing that he's yearning for more than for gold.

Is safe and secure—somewhere! It may be his pen or his pipe or his book: "I saw it but yesterday."

Says the wife of his soul, with the kindly: "And—somewhere—I put it away."

Secure. You'll find it somewhere hereabouts, for I took such trouble to put it away."

So the man sets about in a maddening search. Now hopeful, now filled with despair. And he ransacks each cranny and drawer and every nook and cranny.

In quest of that hazy "somewhere." Somewhere! Somewhere! And he gropes in a way that's tabooed by the laws of decency.

As he thinks for that hidden "somewhere." O women who love us, we beg and beseech you on behalf of our devotion and care. Which we put our chattels so far out of reach.

In a safe but forgotten "somewhere." We. Our hair. And glowing and eloquent figures of speech.

We know you desire to "put me not to rest." But please, leave our pouches and pipes. And don't, if you can, put them away!

Way. In a nook that's so near, yet so bafflingly far. That the search makes us wrinkled and gray.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS.

Annual Meeting of the Lobo Township Association.

From a Correspondent.

The seventh annual meeting of the Sunday School Association of Lobo township was held in the Baptist Church, Poplar Hill, Wednesday, June 22. For the first time in its existence three sessions were held, dinner and supper being spread on tables erected for the occasion in the shady grove opposite the church, for the entertainment of those from a distance. Everything, both in the grove and in the church, passed off charmingly. The forenoon session was chiefly devoted to business. It was opened by a half-hour of devotional exercises, led by N. Gray, after which the President, Mr. Peter Mitchell, gave a short address welcoming those present, and inviting all to take part in the proceedings of the day.

Miss Maggie Sinclair, the efficient secretary-treasurer, gave a very full and interesting report of the last meeting, which report met with general satisfaction.

The report of Mr. John Alder, visitor of schools, furnished data for much entertaining comparison. The aggregate of scholars in the township is 637 of 382. The largest school is the Methodist, Komoka, with a total of 80, and a general average of 60. The next is the Friends at Colborne, with 46, general average 55. The highest general average, denominationally, in the township of scholars is the Methodist, with 100 per cent.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

NO TIME TO TRIFLE.

Diarrhoea and Dysentery are Too Dangerous to Experiment With Untried Remedies.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry Has Over 40 Years of Cures to Its Credit, and Never Fails in the Severe Cases.

Diseases, such as Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Inflammation of the Bowels, Cramps, Colic and Summer Complaint, are recognized by everyone as exceedingly dangerous.

When you or any member of your family are attacked, you want a remedy you are positive will cure. These diseases are too serious to be treated with cheap and dangerous imitations of the genuine Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

Rev. Mr. Davis, Baptist, Poplar Hill, in his discourse on "Is the Sunday School a Divine Institution?" took the ground that it was, although no formal canon for it is found in the Bible. The Bible does not teach us all our practical duty; who thinks so does not understand the purpose of the book.

We find there the spirit that animates the good work in such commands as "Feed My lambs," "Go ye into all the world and teach the people," &c. We find ourselves led into such work as the result of an earnest desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, desiring to know what would Jesus do if He were here in the world.

Many valuable papers were presented to the Association treating of vital subjects embraced in Sunday school work.

FREE PRESS CORRESPONDENCE.

AIRSET WITHOUT WARRANT.

To the Editor of the Free Press.