Our evening classes will not close until 1st April. Any young man or woman of fair intelligence can acquire, between this and that date, a very good practical idea of BOOKKEEPING; can won-derfully improve in PENMANSHIP; can be materially helped in BUSINESS ARITHMETIC; and can be taught enough about PHONOGRAPHY to enable any one, who has enough push and ap plication, to finish the study without the aid of a teacher. You can not spend three nights a week more profitably.

The amount real-lised by sales was $130, the remainder of the produce being retained for use in the jail. There was an expenditure of $22 for agricultural implements and seeding. The governor enclosed a check for the $130. The oity commissioner sent in the fol-lowing returns from the Western cattle market for December. Received—Cattle 4501, sheep 1148, hoge 2345. Cash re-seived for weighing, $46.50. The sum of $100 was voted to Mrs. Buchanan, whose husband died from slok-meas contracted in the department's ser-vioe.

The brevier will be sold at 20 cents, and the nonparell at 25 cents, in lots to suit purchasers. All in good condition. The assault case against Warden Massie came up at the police court yesterday. The evidence showed Convict Patrick O'Brien had used very insulting and diagasting innguage, and had refused to spologies, telling the warden to do his utmost. The magistrate diamissed the case, with the remark that the country wasn't going to be ruled by jail birds, and that the pris-ouer deserved all the punishment he got. D, J. McCarthy, the ex-convict who had brought the matter into court, was thus effectually sat upon.
