John J. Dixon & Co. received the following despatch over their private wire from Henry Allen & Co. of New York to-day: The weakness in stocks has been continued again to-day. They all dropped and some of them reached the lowest level for months past. Wail-street just at present is in a very despondent mood which cannot be broken off by news of a very cheerful character. Enthusiastic talk about immense crops and prospect of unprecedented railroad earnings is no longer heard, and if present dainess continues will be doubtless soon forgotten.

29 Church-street, Toronto, Ont. R. Cochran received the following to-day from Kennett, Hopkins & Co. of Chicago: Wheat-Large engagements for export, lighter local receipts than expected, firm tone of foreign advices and a frost scare in the Northwest were the basis of to-day's strength in wheat. The early firmness might not have held so well if Partridge had not been a liberal buyer at almost top prices. This checked offerings, but the crowd are bearish and predict lower prices Monday if the large car lot estimates are realized. Corn and oats—Apprehension of frost had much to do with to-day's advance in corn. A good many traders are trailing on after a conjectured and one price in well-street. Now, the Duke of Marlborough and his English friends are in it, according to a London special.

Speculation may put prices higher temporarily, but it is believed there is plenty of old corn in the country and it may be marketed as old oats are now being marketed. At one time this year the latter were sold at 60 cents to arrive, and now the control of the country and it may be marketed as old oats are now being marketed. There was more enquiry for Ontario wheat and prices were steady. Standard white offered at $70 and No. 2 sold north at $1, delivered. On call board No. 2 spring offered at $10, outside without bids. Manitoba wheat was firm; No. 5 hard sold at $4c. Toronto freights, and No. 2 northern for export at $90. On call board No. 1 hard offered at $1.10 wests with $1.07 bid and No. 2 hard at $1.04 without bids; $90 cm and at $20.00 hard at $1.04 without bids; $90 cm and at $20.00 hard at $1.00 wests with $1.07 bid and No. 2 hard at $1.00 wests with $1.07 bid and No. 2 hard at $1.00 wests with $1.07 bid and $1.00 without bids; $90 cm and at $20.00 hard at $1.00 wests with $1.07 bid and $1.00 white selling on spot at 500 and at $20.00 hoursel freights. History of this lind repeats itself with exasperating frequency, but the farmers seldom profit by it; they are now holding on to corn, for which shey will bid big prices, and the chances are that they are now offered unless some disaster overtakes the growing crop. WM. RYAN 70 AND 72 FRONT EAST. R. Cochran received the following despatch on Saturday from Kennett, Hopkins & Co., New York: Stock market has been heavy with further evidences of liquidation in C., B.Q. and R.T. The iatter, it is said, a prominent house sold out quite large line of speculative holdings. The R.T. bonds and preferred stock are weak at decline 2 to 3 to-day. Selling of Burlington seems to be of same nature as for some days past and rumored the company being in need of money and finding itself unable to sell bonds is a borrower. Lackawama has been pressed for sale to-day. Reported coal trade is at a standstill as far as new transactions are concerned since it was discovered D.L. was cutting prices, buyers having withdrawn from market. No attempt is being made to get July circular prices for coal. Bank statement was better than expected. The increase in reserve of $1,220,000 was occasioned by decrease in deposits $2,000,000 and an unexpected increase on cash $706,000. Feature of statement is decrease in loans of $1,887,000. Stocks closed dull and weak. Total sales, 63,000.
