UNITED CHURCH NOTES

The music at the United Church was on Sunday evening last was very excellent, and greatly appreciated by everybody. A violin solo by Mrs. Bishop was rendered in characteristically beautiful form. An anthem with a solo part sweetly sung by Mrs. Graves, given by a full choir was a splendid success. Mr. Barrows sang "One Sweetly Sought" by Ambrose, in a most charming and effective manner. Mr. Barrows is a possessor of a very sweet and mellow tenor voice. It is good news to all who had the pleasure of hearing him on Sunday evening, to learn that he has kindly consented to sing again on Sunday evening next. He will sing "Face Face" by Herbert Johnson.

Anticipating the opening of the schools, and the early return of students to college, Mr. MacKinnon, pastor of the United Church, will cast a sermon to suit the occasion. A cordial welcome to everybody!

Mrs. T. B. Price "At Home"—Pretty Wedding at Sandy Cove, Annapolis Girls Teaching in County Schools—Personal and Social Items.

Annapolis Royal.—Mrs. T. B. Price was "At Home" for the first time since coming to Annapolis, on Tuesday afternoon, at her apartments on St. George St. The rooms were artistically decorated with cut flowers, and the hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. E. L. Reid of Granville Ferry, Mrs. J. H. Edwards and Mrs. F. W. Pickels "poured" and Mrs. L. Robertson, Mrs. D. Owen and Miss Madelyn Merriam "served," while Miss Jean Robertson attended the door.

A pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, August 19th, at the home of Mrs. W. S. Collins, Sandy Cove, N. S., when her daughter, Miss Lillian Harris, became the wife of Mr. Harry C. Gormley of this town. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. T. Bryant, in the presence of a large number of invited guests. The bride was attired in a navy blue ensemble, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of carnations and sweet peas. She was attended by her step-sister, Miss Doris Collins, who was gowned in green, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and snap-dragons, and Mr. Percy B. Harris of Malden, Mass., acted as best man. After a short trip to some of the principal places in Nova Scotia, Mr. and Mrs. Gormley will reside in Annapolis Royal, having purchased the house of Mr. M. C. McCormick, on Bohaker St.

The schools in the outside sections opened on Monday, and Miss Evelyn King left for Princetown, while Miss Kathleen DeVany is principal at Lequille. The Primary Department is under the charge of Mrs. Starratt, who has moved with her family from Springfield, and is occupying the "Beeler" house, near St. Alban's Church.

The death occurred on Wednesday, after a lingering illness, of Frances Marion, infant daughter of James and Marian (Harris) Horsfall. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. W. L. Smith of Clementsport, with interment at St. Alban's Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bellevue expect to move, the second week in September, to the home of Mr. Lewis M. How, on Victoria Street. Mr. and Mrs. How are moving to Round Hill, where they have taken the George Sanders farm.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Wood, with their little son and daughter, who have been the guests of Mrs. Wood's parents, Rev. T. C. and Mrs. Mellor, have returned to their home in Jamaica Plain, Mass.

Miss Ruth Goucher, a graduate of Plunket Hospital, Jamaica Plain, Mass., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goucher.

Miss Louise Harris has returned home from Paradise, N. S., where she had been the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Jackson.

Miss Winifred Elaine, B. A., who will teach the seventh and eighth grades at Middleton this term, returned on Tuesday from a visit to St. John's, N.B.

Mr. Moore C. McCormick has purchased the house of Mr. Alfred Hoyt at Lequille, and will move there shortly with his family.

GOOD FLOWER SHOW AT LAWRENCETOWN

The first show held under the auspices of the Women's Institute in the Demonstration Building on Wednesday last proved to be in every way a great success. The attendance was good both afternoon and evening, and the magnificent display of flowers was a revelation to all who saw them.

The committee were certainly fortunate in having such excellent and expert judges as Messrs. W. Blair, of Kentville and H. Fox of Annapolis Royal. Everyone was loud in praise of the painstaking and conscientious work done by them. The committee and the exhibitors alike owe them very sincere thanks.

The ladies were kept busy dispensing tea and ice cream throughout the entire period. This entailed quite a lot of work on their part, as the day was very hot and refreshments were much in demand.

The hall which contained the flowers was a vision of beauty, ablaze with glorious colors and fragrant with the perfume of many sweet blossoms.

A very fitting conclusion to this event was a concert given by local talent to whom the committee wish to express their appreciation.

It is now well assured that the Flower Show will not only be an annual event but will be bigger and better every year.
