THE WORSHIP AND TRADITIONS OF THE ABORIGINES OF AMERICA; or their Testimony to the Religion of the Bible.—By REV. M. EELLS, Missionary of the American Missionary Association among the Indians, Skokomish, Mason County, Washington Territory, U.S.A.

"TO undertake to trace ethnic relations between widelyseparated peoples, by similarity of manners and customs, is an uncertain guide. Man, apart from his improvable reason, has, what we call in the higher animals, instinct; and, as the beaver everywhere constructs his dam according to a definite plan, so will man perform certain acts instinctively, after a certain manner. Hence among barbarous nations we may expect to find a similarity of manners and customs, without necessarily supposing that they are the result of inheritance; but, when we come to the higher manifestations of art, the result of improvable reason, there are found certain characters, original and unique, which become infallible guides in tracing national affinities."*
