

CONTENTS.

xiii

—Miseries of deserters—Anecdote of a swimmer—Causes of discontent—National corps and county regiments—Reasons for desertion—Want of uniformity in punishments—Notions regarding a commanding officer—Indulgences—Schools—Athletic games Ball firing—Public works—Monotony the chief cause of desertion—Good effects of Temperance Societies and Savings' Banks—Effects of addresses on soldiers 156

CHAPTER XI.

Beauty of the Canadian morning—Amusements of the officers—Setting in of the winter—The officer's winter coat—The sleigh-meets—Prepare for a sleigh drive to the Falls of Niagara—Route to Brantford—Night adventure—Canadian living and servants—
Anecdotes—Indian thieves—Hamilton—Teetotalism
—A drunkard outwitted—The battle-field of Stoney Creek—A dry old Yankee—Falls of Niagara in winter—The water rockets—Proposal to pass over the Falls—A thaw and its effects—The Clifton Hotel—
The battle-field of Lundy's Lane 180

CHAPTER XII.

Perils of a resurrectionist — Dangerous predicament—Absurd occurrence at Bully's Acre—Rattlesnake fat—Manner of obtaining it—Cross the