

Trinity

33.

BY-LAWS

OF

TRINITY MEDICAL COLLEGE,

1889.

---

I. The Corporation of Trinity Medical College shall consist of the professors or other teachers of the said College, who are now members of the said Corporation, and of such other professors or teachers as may be hereafter admitted as members of the said Corporation.

II. The officers of the Corporation shall be the Dean, the Treasurer, the Minute Secretary, and any other officer who may, in addition to these, be required. All these shall be appointed to their respective positions, under the power given to the Corporation, in the Act of Incorporation of the College.

III. Five members of the Corporation shall constitute a quorum, and said quorum shall have full power to transact all business which may be brought up at any meeting of the Corporation; but no addition shall be made to the Corporation, nor shall any expenditure of money, exceeding $100, be incurred at any such meeting. Nor can any new professor or lecturer be appointed, unless notice of such intended appointment or expenditure, shall have been given at the meeting previously held.

IV. Meetings of the Corporation may be called at any time, by order of the Dean, or at the request of any three