What is a board like the one in the picture with a notice on it called? I don't know what it is called.

It is called a placard.

Now, what is a placard? It is a notice posted in a public place.

What has the man on? He has on a hat, a waistcoat, two shirts, a pair of trousers, and, I suppose, a pair of boots.

How is his waistcoat? It is unbuttoned.

How is the right sleeve of his shirt? It is unbuttoned.

How do you know that he has on two shirts? I know it because the right sleeve of his undershirt is visible at the wrist because of his outer-shirt being unbuttoned.

What is the outside shirt made of? It is made of cotton.

What color is it? It is white.

What is his undershirt made of? I don't know.

Why don't you know? I don't know because I can't see enough of it to decide.

What do you suppose it is made of? I suppose it is made of some woollen material.

What color is it? I cannot say.

Is it white? No it is not white, it is some dark color.

What has the man on his face? On his face he has a moustache and chin-whiskers.

What color are they? They are white.

Is the man old or young? He is not very young.

Describe his hat as fully as you can? It is a high-crowned broad-brimmed, white chip hat. The brim is broken in two places and there is a slight dint in the crown, on the right side.

Is the man tall? Yes he is tall.

How tall is he about? He is about six feet tall.

Is he stout? No he is not very stout.

Is he a big man? Yes he is a big man.

Does he look vigorous? Yes he looks very vigorous.

What have you to say of his bones? They are big.

How do you know that he is big-boned? I know it by his wrists and his hands.

What has he in his left hand? In his left hand he has a stick, a piece of a branch of a tree.

Are there any leaves on it? No, there are no leaves on it.
