Week of October 19,—"Devil's Mine."

Anyone who has ever seen the play of "Devil's Mine," which comes to this theatre next week, cannot have forgotten the genuine pleasure there is in tracing the hardships of "Old Joe" and "Jennie Williams" to the happy culmination of their struggle to maintain their own. The heroism of "Jack Hawley" in his devotion to the helpless old man and his noble girl, the ludicrous adventures of the broken-down actor "Brutus," and the impecunious "Samuel," the wicked "Rawlins" and his dispicable tool "Jose" the greaser. The play is one which has always given the utmost satisfaction. Sensational without being "blood and thunderish," it represents a perfectly possible story, while the comedy is ever bright and free from vulgarity. There is always a great deal of good music, singing and dancing specialties, and the public gets value received "Devil's Mine" stock.

Week of October 26,—"The Two Johns."

The Peerless Corine, supported by Mrs. Jennie Kimball's Opera, Comique and Burlesque Company, will shortly appear on Jacobs and Sparrow's Opera House, in her revised burlesque of "Carmen up to Date." The Company is by far the best that Mrs. Kimball has ever put on the road. The costumes and scenery are said to be worth $30,000. This will be the gala event of the season at this popular theatre
