"STANLEY GIBBONS, LIMITED,
"801, STRAND, LONDON, W C."

We arranged that this circular should be posted on the last day of August, and no lot was delivered until September 1st, when Messrs. W. H. Peckitt, Bubl & Co, Limited, Richard Senf, etc, etc., had their lots either delivered or posted to them. Unfortunately, owing to delay in procuring the electros of the stamps for the heading of the circular, the issue of this was delayed a few days, and hence the fuss some of the small dealers have kicked up about lots having been offered at so many different prices prior to the issue of our circular.

No lot has been, or will be, sold by us for less than the sum stated in the circular; but it will be noticed that the purchaser of a lot for £103 may, if he thinks fit to work at a very close profit, retail our No. 1 lot at a less price than we have fixed as our minimum. For this reason, we propose to discontinue to supply No. 1 lot at £12 10s, and in future we shall only execute orders for the lots at £31 10s and £103.

We further hereby give notice that from January 1st, 1897, the prices of these lots will be advanced to £60 and £120 respectively.

When transferring the Library of Congress from the National Capital Building to the new Congressional Library Building, recently completed, a very large number of old envelopes, papers, and in fact many curious things which had stamps attached were found. Among the lot it is reported that a clerk found a strip of 3 12d Canada in a cancelled state.

This is the season of the year that the collector thinks he ought to buy good stamps, but hesitates. It will quickly be followed by the season wherein the collector kicks himself for hesitating.

It is thought that a special stamp will be issued by the United States for the use of carriers and railways, who, by a recent order of the Post Office Department have to pay postage on their own letters, etc., even though carried by their own men and rolling stock.

Stamp Lore, from London, Ont., has again appeared, the last issue dated for

TO ENCOURAGE BUYING

And to open business for this fall and winter, some very special prices are quoted in this announcement. Some good lots of stamps have been bought during the past few months, and prices are much lower than usual. We always like to say a few words about Canada Revenues, and while some protest there is no demand for them, we beg to differ strongly. The future will prove this point. Meantime any wants, postage or revenues, will have prompt attention. ANYTHING TO SELL?

CASH WITH ORDER.

WM. R. ADAMS,
7 Ann Street, - TORONTO, ONT.

We have some approval books of stamps on which discount is 50%. Canada, United States, also revenues, and Colonials. Why not write?

November, being well got up and the contents newswy. We notice that they intend publishing Canadian revenues similar to that which is now running in the Canadian Philatelic Magazine, since last March.

Tobiago ordered a supply of the 1sh, value recently, from Messrs. De La Rue and Co., and when the supply reached the island it was found to be in same color as the current 6d. It was noticed after some had been issued, and supply withdrawn from use and the old color ordered.

Aubert, who murdered M. Delahdeff in Paris, for his stamp collection, was sentenced to life imprisonment. His trial proved him to have been a rogue and swindler all his life, and addicted to the use of drugs. Sensation papers who tried to lead people to think that the act was the result of avarice for stamps, have nothing to prove it.
