ALDER'S MANIFOLD CYCLOPEDIA .-The twenty second volume of Alden's Manifold Cyclopedia ombraces the titles from Legal to M'Clure. The great merits of this work-its freehness, fulness, accuracy; its combination of dictionary with evolopedia; its convenient form, and the high degree of skill with which it is being directed-seem to increase with each succeeding volume-Among a great number of interesting topics treated in this volume, we notice Letters and Articulate Sounds; Librarice, about seven pages: Light: Lithography; among the important places are Leipzig, Loydon, Liboria, London, Long Island; among states, Louisiana; in the line of biography we find Leibnitz, Lessing, Provident Lincoln, Liszt, Livingstone, the explorer, Locke, and Longfellow. As an educator in the family or school, or assistant in the office or the library, this work is invaluable, and its cost is so extremely low as to place it within the reach of all. Specimen pages and easy installment terms of payment may be had on request. Garretson, Cox & Co., Publishers, New York, Chicago, and Atlanta

Where love enpobles all. And surely our duty is to those whom God has placed nearest to us, perhaps sometimes influencing them unconsciously, but always continually and surely. God grant that it may always be to His honor and glory, thus making this world botter and brighter for having been a daughter and a sister. -Selected.

Influence of Music.

On Sabbath mornings, when I give out a fine tune, and hear the congregation singing it, I thank God for the is a flory chariot carrying our thought and poetry to heavon. I should like to say that God's people are, and always have been, a singing people. Moses is the first great singer whose compositions we have; yet we rather think of him as crushed down with the task of leading the millions through the wilderness. David, the singing sliophord of Bothlehom, poured all the wealth of his great heart in the sacred Psalms which have been the Church's possession since. Paul must have been a singer as well as a logician, for habit of praise survived even in the torture and darkness of the Philippian jail. No doubt his long journeys were gladdened with song. And since Paul there has not been a more Paul-like man than Martin Luther, the republisher of the grace of God and the father of our modern praise. Generally with any spiritual revival there has come an outburst of song. Why is it that Christians sing and cannot help singing? It is the movement of life and love rising so high in the heart that it Receipt for Unfermented Wine overflows in melody.—Rev. J. Stalker.

Nothing so impresses the student of missions as the fact that a wonderful celerity of movement is manipints water; put on the fire and let it festing itself with increasing force in boil until the skins are broken. CATARRH,

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS-HAY FEVER A NEW HOME TREATMENT.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and oustachian tubes. Microscopio research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal dealness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. H.—This treatment is not a snuff or an ointment; both have been discarded by reputable physicians as injurious. A pamplifet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixov & Sox, 303 West King Street, Toronto, Canada.—Toronto Globe.

Sufferers from Catarrhal troubles should carefully read the rbove.
