

meeting of the Presbyterian Church, Ailsa Craig, Ont. All branches of church work there are in a happy condition, the financial statement being most satisfactory. This condition of things must be very encouraging to their pastor, the Rev. D. L. Dewar, B.A.

The Rev. D. D. Millar is pastor of East Gloucester Presbyterian congregation. The meeting held recently indicates the work there to be in a healthy condition. During the past year there has been an increase in attendance at services, and a great deal of interest in church work. The Sabbath-schools are in a prosperous condition.

The work is steadily progressing in Hintonburg, Ont., in Bethany Church, of which the Rev. R. Eadie is pastor. This church was organized in 1893, with twenty-seven members, while now they number about ninety. There is also a marked increase in the Sunday-school, which now numbers one hundred and eighty, with sixteen teachers and officers.

The annual meeting of Knox Church, Goderich, Ont., was held lately. Here the work is advancing rapidly under the pastorate of the Rev. J. A. Anderson, B.A. There are over five hundred members and about as many scholars in the Sabbath-school. They report a surplus of over four hundred dollars this year, and the amount which has been raised for church schemes was over one thousand dollars.
