

United States. He located in 1828, resumed the work again, superannuated in 1833, and died in Ancaster, 1855.

William Snyder, missionary to the French; 1808, Ottawa. Of him we have no further account.

1807.—I. B. Smith; continued in the regular work until 1825, when he was superannuated, and finally withdrew in 1829.

1808.—William Snow, Cornwall; 1809, St. Lawrence. Rev. J. Carroll says of him, "That sometimes he preached with great power, and so straitened othertimes, as to say at the close, "Brethren, I have done, and I am glad of it."

Chandly Lambert, Bay of Quinte, then returned home.

John Reynolds.—Located and settled in Belleville; was one of the leaders in the Episcopal division, and became the first Bishop of that secession; died a few years ago.

Samuel Cochran, was stationed this year in Quebec; returned to the States, and died in 1845, "Literally worn out in his Master's service."

Ninian Holmes, after travelling a few years, located near Chat-ham, where he died, 1828. He was a well educated man, and in advance of his times, in point of literary attainments and general knowledge.

1809. George McCracken; Quebec,—the only circuit he labored on in Canada.

Joseph Samson, born and ordained in Lower Canada, P. E. of Lower Canada District; expelled from the church in the U. S., 1816.

Joseph Scull. Montreal, 1809–10; Quebec 1811.

Joseph Lockwood, after two years travelling, located at Brighton, where he still resides; has not preached for many years, and we are not aware of his being now connected with our Church.

1810. Robert Hibbard, whilst going from Ottawa Circuit to St. Francis, was drowned in attempting to cross the St. Lawrence, near Montreal, 1812.

Peter Covenhoven or Conover; a few years in the work, after which he located on Dundas Street, and served the Church whilst he was able as a Local Preacher. He bequeathed the one-half of the proceeds of his farm to the Missionary Society; which was, we think, the first bequest our Missionary Society had received; honorable mention is made of him in the Journal of Rev. Peter Jones.

Daniel Freman, travelled one year and located near Simcoe.

1811. Joseph Gatchel, continued in the work in Canada twenty years; superannuated in 1831; was one of the founders of the division of 1834: is still living.
