

THE CANADIAN INDEPENDENT.

Littell's Living Age.

In 1842 THE LIVING AGE enters upon its forty-third year, having just with constant consistency and success.

A WEEKLY MAGAZINE, it gives fifty-two volumes of thirty-four pages each, or more than Three and a Quarter Thousand selected and choice pages of reading matter yearly.

It presents in an inexpensive form, considering the amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its daily issue, and with a completeness nowhere else approached.

The best Essays, Reviews, Criticism, Serial and Short Stories, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature, and from the pens of the

FOREMOST LIVING WRITERS.

The ablest and most cultivated intellects, is every department of Literature, Science, Politics, and Art, and expression in the Periodical Literature of Europe, and especially of Great Britain.

The Living Age, forming four large volumes a year, furnishes, from the great and generally inaccessible works of this literature, the only compilation that, while within the reach of all, is satisfactory in the COMPLETENESS with which it embraces whatever is of immediate interest, or of solid, permanent value.

It is therefore indispensable to every one who wishes to keep pace with the events or intellectual powers of the time, or to cultivate in himself or his family, general intelligence and literary taste.

OPINIONS.

"We have thought that it was impossible to improve upon this grand publication, yet it does seem to grow better each year. We regard it as the most marvelous publication of the time."—Christian at New York.

"By reading it one can keep abreast of the current thought upon all literary and public matters."—New York Observer.

"Such a publication exhausts our superlatives.
There is nothing noteworthy in science, art, literature, theology, philosophy, or religion, that cannot be found in it. It contains nearly all the good literature of the time."—The Churchman, New York.

"In reading the closely printed pages one is brought in contact with the men who are making opinion the world over. Always new, always attractive, always exhibiting editorial wisdom, it is an essential aid to every one desirous of keeping up with the current of English literature."—Episcopal Recorder, Phila.

"It is edited with great skill and care, and its weekly appearance gives it certain advantages over its monthly rivals."—Albany Argus.

"It may be truthfully and cordially said that it never offers a dry or valueless page."—New York Tribune.

"At its publication price it is the cheapest reading one can procure."—Boston Globe.

"It saves much labor for busy people, who have no time to go over the various reviews and magazines, but will still wish to keep themselves well informed upon the questions of the day."—The Advance, Chicago.

"It furnishes a complete compilation of an indispensable literature."—Chicago Evening Journal.

"It enables its readers to keep fully abreast of the thought and literature of civilization."—Christian Advocate, Pittsburgh.

"It is unqualed."—South Carolina Presbyterian, Charleston.

"It is absolutely without a rival."—Montreal Gazette.
