

Canadian Presbyterian Mission Fields.

A GREAT MISSIONARY SERIES.

The History of the Missionary Enterprise of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

FRIENDS of Missions and Missionary Associations everywhere are delighted with the articles in this series that have already appeared in the KNOX COLLEGE MONTHLY. These very full historical sketches have been read from several pulpits, have furnished materials for missionary papers and addresses, and have given hundreds of readers a bird's-eye view of the several fields sketched. No one interested in Missions should be without this valuable series. Following is the list of subjects and writers so far arranged :—

- The New Hebrides Mission—The Rev. R. Murray, M.A., Halifax, N.S., Editor of the Presbyterian Witness.
The West Indies.—The Rev. A. Falconer, Pictou, N.S., for eight years Missionary to Trinidad.
Formosa.—The Rev. G. M. Milligan, B.A., Toronto, Member of the Foreign Mission Committee.
Central India.—The Rev. Prof. MacLaren, D.D., Toronto, Member and ex-Convener of the Foreign Mission Committee.
Honan.—The Rev. J. B. Fraser, M.D., Annan, Member of the Foreign Mission Committee.
North-West Indians.—The Rev. A. B. Baird, M.A., B.D., Winnipeg.
French Evangelization.—The Rev. Principal MacVicar, D.D., LL.D., Montreal, Chairman of the Board.
Maritime Provinces.—The Rev. John McMillan, B.D., Halifax, N.S.
Quebec.—James Croil, Montreal, Editor of the Presbyterian Record.
Ontario.—The Rev. W. Cochrane, D.D., Brantford, Convener of the Home Mission Committee.
North-West and British Columbia.—The Rev. J. Robertson, D.D., Superintendent of Missions.
Missions to Negroes in Canada.—J. C. Hamilton, M.A., LL.B., Toronto, Chairman Historical Section Canadian Institute.
The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.—Mrs. D. J. Macdonnell, Toronto, Vice-President of the Society.
The Students' Missionary Societies.—Rev. J. A. Macdonald, Editor of the KNOX COLLEGE MONTHLY, Toronto.

Five of these articles have now appeared. The rest are promised one for each month until all have been published.

These Articles will all be copyrighted, and will not appear in any other paper or periodical. New subscriptions for the MONTHLY should be sent in at once. Subscriptions may begin at any time.

Subscription Price, One Dollar a Year, in Advance.

Address all orders to the publisher,

D. T. McAINSH,
PRESBYTERIAN NEWS CO., TORONTO.