As all the English papers must be paid for in advance, the subscriber will send in his accounts at the end of every three months, parties not paying need not be surprised at their papers being discontinued.

Subscriptions taken for any paper or periodical published in Great Britain, all those who have no account with the subscriber, will have to pay one quarter in advance.

P. SINCLAIR,
No. 14, Fabrique Street.

Prospectus.

SINCLAIR'S JOURNAL OF BRITISH NORTH AMERICA, will be published ONCE A FORTNIGHT, until the 1st of May next, when it will be issued ONCE A WEEK.

It will contain 16 PAGES Octavo Royal, making two handsome annual volumes of 400 pages each.

As it is intended to be devoted exclusively to Literature, everything of a political nature will be excluded from its columns.

The original and selected articles, will at all times, have for their object the improvement and cultivation of the human mind, and from the literary talent that has been secured, it is confidently hoped, that ere long, it will become one of the first Literary Journals in British North America.

The terms will be 12s. 6d. per annum, commencing from the 1st of May, single Nos. 3d.

Any person remitting $7 can have 3 copies sent to their address. $11 for 5 copies. $20 for 10 copies.

As this journal will have a large circulation in the country, parties wishing to advertise will find it to their advantage, as a limited space will be kept for that purpose.

THE FOLLOWING STANDARD WORKS.

1st and 2nd volumes of Macaulay's History of England. 12s. 6d. each.

English History, in the hands of Macaulay, is no longer confused or obscure. Though the same ground has been cultivated by other and distinguished Historians, Macaulay comes into the field as a gleaner, and leaves it with richer intellectual harvest than was obtained by his predecessors. And then his style imparts all the charm of romance to the realities of history.

Macaulay's work will have a world-wide popularity. Wherever the English language is spoken it will find admiring readers.

The Female Poets of America, by Rufus Wilmot Griswold. 15s.

Critical and Miscellaneous Writings of T. Noon Talfourd, author of "Ion." 6s. 6d.

Essays, Critical and Miscellaneous, by T. B. Macaulay. 12s. 6d.
