CHOICE OF CHURCH-WORKERS.

In the Church of England the Ember Seasons are special seasons of prayer for the candidates for Ordination, and at such times the whole Church should be, so to speak, on her knees before God. The appointment, however, of ordinary Church-workers is scarcely regarded with the solemnity which it deserves, and anything which can give it greater emphasis and dignity is to be welcomed. Nor is there any gift for which a clergyman may more fitly pray than the discerning of spirits, i. e., the faculty of seeing not only what needs to be done, but also of finding the right man to do it. It is said of a great leader of religious thought in our own time that, when consulted on some point of practical difficulty, he would remark, "The first thing to be considered is what God thinks about the matter," and then they would kneel together and pray for guidance and direction. Prayer is the breath of the soul, and in few cases is prayer more needed than in the choice of helper. What Canon Liddon used to call the "Inspiration of Selecting" with regard to the Church's editing of the Books of the Bible, is an inspiration which we may still reasonably seek to help us in the selection of Church-workers; though, of course, no one will seek it to the neglect of common sense and the teachings of previous experience; nor, at least in the present day, does it guarantee immunity from mistake. -Rev. S. C. Lowry.

The entrance door of a dwelling has a substantial appearance when a panel of beveled plate glass is inserted. The Vestibule door is exceedingly handsome when composed of polished beveled glass of ornamental design. Delicate tints of muffled glass, with cut glass jewels are frequently used to excellent effect in conjunction with beveled plate for the upper portion of Drawing room and Dining room windows, also for numerous other locations. McCausland & Son 68 King St. W., Toronto, are the principal workers in such specialties.
