to the first illustrations are such as to occupy my whole time. I am therefore in no sense a competitor.

I am much obliged for your offer to contribute a chapter to your book, but I have decided to write nothing on the subject at any rate
for many a day to come.
Yours faithfully,

Mr. Joseph Pope to Col. Macpherson

My dear Sir,

23rd June 1891.

Dear Macpherson,

I have yours
of today. I did not observe the paragraph in the 'Lancet' to which you allude, but I may say that as present I have no intention of publishing any life or memoirs of Sir John.
My duties as Secretary

The work will shortly be issued by the Earle Publishing House of St. John, N.B., and will be a marvel of the Printers' and Bookbinders' Art. It will be copiously illustrated, including two Steel Portraits of Sir John. The work will be complete in two volumes, in four styles of binding. Lovers of Canada's "Grand Old Man" will do well to remember that this is the ONLY Life of Sir John A. Macdonald authorized by himself. Read Mr. Pope's letter given above in this connection. Agents Wanted.
