

HUMORS OF THE BLOOD, SKIN AND SCALP.

Humors of the blood, skin and scalp, which itching, burning, bleeding, acrid, crusty, pimply, blotchy, or copper-colored, with loss of hair, etc., are cured by CUTICURA.

Humors of the blood, skin and scalp, which itching, burning, bleeding, acrid, crusty, pimply, blotchy, or copper-colored, with loss of hair, etc., are cured by CUTICURA.

IRISH NEWS.

The Rev. Thomas Lynch, P. P., of Clonmel, died recently of inflammation of the lungs.

Sister Mary Catherine of the order of Mercy, made her solemn profession on April 22, at St. Catherine's Convent, Ballyshannon, at the hands of Bishop O'Donnell.

At the Chapel of the Convent of Mercy, Carlow, on April 26, Miss Whitford, of Bantry, in religion Sister Mary Benedict, made her vows of profession, which were received by the Very Rev. John Foley, President of Carlow College.

Miss ELLEN DE RICCI O'BEIRNE received the white veil at the Dominican Convent, Belfast, on April 20, taking the name of Sister Mary Dominic.

MORE ORANGE OUTRAGES IN PORTADOWN.—Several outrages on Catholics by Orangemen have recently been perpetrated in Portadown.

THE CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP OF PARIS has returned to his see after his visit ad limina. The Messager announces that he is the bearer of an autograph letter from the Pope to President Carnot.

IMPENDING EVICTIONS IN WEST CLARE.—At the Kiltresh Petty Sessions, on April 25, a number of tenants on local estates were summoned under the eviction-made-clauses for the possession of their holdings.

EMIGRATION FROM KERRY.—A large number of emigrants left Kiltarney by the day mail train on April 25, most of them being bound for America.

THE DEATH OCCURRED RECENTLY of the Rev. Patrick Murphy in his native town of Wexford. Father Murphy was for many years the chief pastor of St. Anthony's parish, Scotland road, Liverpool.

than his own. No Roman Catholic ever possessed in this city a wider or more cordial circle of Protestant friends, or turned them to better account, or illustrated more delightfully the old virtues of simple hospitality and genial companionship which have been traditions—often embalmed in literary records—of the Irish priesthood.

THE REV. DANIEL KAVANAGH, of Wexford, died on April 23, aged about 80 years. Father Kavanagh received his early education in St. Peter's College, and entered the logic class of Maynooth in 1833.

THE CENSUS OF TYRONE.—The population of Tyrone, which in 1841 was 312,955, is now 171,401. During the ten years, 1881-91, the decrease was 23,318. The number of emigrants in the decennium amounted to 28,960, a total of 121,987 for the last forty years.

BELEAF GUARDIANS REFUSE CATHOLIC NURSES FOR THE WORKHOUSE.—At the meeting of the Belfast Board of Guardians, on April 23, a letter was read from the Rev. J. O'Kane, chaplain of the workhouse, in which he said: 'I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 14th inst., purporting to be a reply to mine of the 12th inst. Any one, however, who will see at a glance that it is no reply, for it simply informs me of what my letter showed I was already aware—viz., that as a board you do not inquire into the religious denomination of candidates seeking appointments as nurses in the workhouse.

UP AND OUT OF DOORS.—To make a long story short, I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for a year, when I had become so fully benefited from the chains of disease that I took a position with the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since that time have not had a single day of sickness.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.—for it has been a great blessing to me, and to my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous. I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the King of all medicines.

CARPETS!!—This Spring Opening pronounced by connoisseurs to be the Finest ever shown in this Market. Carpets for the most cultivated desires in art.

Thomas Ligget, 1884 NOTRE DAME ST. GLENORA BUILDING. LADIES.—We secured three first prizes and diplomas at Montreal, Ottawa and Sherbrooke, 1891, for the extra quality of our manufacture of Silver-Ware and replating old goods equal to new.

self, armed with the mission and the power to build upon its material welfare and social happiness. And are we going to forget all this for a miserable and humiliating dissension? Are we about to act the part of political lunatics, and put away by our own insensate conduct the boon for which we fought and conquered, and which may be handed to us as the reward of our efforts and the proof of our victory by the very people whom we have converted to our cause?

Twenty stone idols have been discovered in excavating Aztec ruins in the direction of Chaco canon, Mexico.

King of Medicines And His Cure Was Almost a Miracle

White Swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for eleven years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed six years.

I Became Discouraged.—I went to Chicago to visit a sister, as it was thought a change of air and scene might do me good.

Up and Out of Doors.—To make a long story short, I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for a year, when I had become so fully benefited from the chains of disease that I took a position with the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since that time have not had a single day of sickness.

Hood's Sarsaparilla.—for it has been a great blessing to me, and to my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous. I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the King of all medicines.

CARPETS!!—This Spring Opening pronounced by connoisseurs to be the Finest ever shown in this Market. Carpets for the most cultivated desires in art.

Thomas Ligget, 1884 NOTRE DAME ST. GLENORA BUILDING. LADIES.—We secured three first prizes and diplomas at Montreal, Ottawa and Sherbrooke, 1891, for the extra quality of our manufacture of Silver-Ware and replating old goods equal to new.

FOR SALE.—Dry Blocks, Dry Kindling, Cut Maple.

J. C. MACGIARMID & CO., 830 St. James Street, Telephone, 8110.

THE RIGBY SUITS.—It is already pretty well proven that the Rigby Waterproof Garments suit the Canadian Climate, and give satisfaction in every particular.

ANTIQUARIAN RESEARCHES.

Who Were the Aborigines of Ireland?

As many volumes as would compose an ordinary library have been written on the origin of the European people; and all who have discussed the subject contrived to be wrong for want of those rules which I laid down in my introductory essay.

"The intelligent and impartial inquirer," says Sharon Turner, "is now satisfied that population has been, everywhere, the result of emigration from some primeval residence. We can trace, from historical documents, the colonization of many parts of the world; and the traditions of other nations sufficiently assure us that they have been effusions from more ancient sources.

"There are," he says, "no more varieties of form or manners among the numerous tribes of mankind than such as the descendants of one pair may have exhibited under the varying influences of different climates and countries; and of dissimilar food, customs, diseases, and occupations. We may therefore believe the account of the most ancient history which we possess, that all nations have sprung from one original race; and to its primitive parents in the first source, and in the second, to one or more of their three descendants, who survived the awful catastrophe, in which the first diffusion of human population disappeared, we must refer the various colonies of Britain, whom we are about to enumerate."

"All ancient history," continues Turner, "agrees with the Mosaic, and with the researches of modern science and antiquarian curiosity, to place the commencement of population, art, and knowledge, in the Eastern portion of the world. Here men first appeared and multiplied; and from hence first spread into those wilder and ruder districts, where nature was living in all her unmolested, but dreary and barbarous majesty."

In these passages the reader has all that is really valuable in Sharon Turner's disquisition upon the Celts and Gs; his deep research is visible in every page, but his application of facts merits but little commendation. He describes the Celts as everywhere feared and hated; says they were the Cimbric, and that they frequently proved formidable to the Roman army, having defeated the Consul Narbo and many illustrious men of that nation.

When the Celts first entered Europe we know not; they were there, at least, seven or eight hundred years before the following authors, among others, call the Gauls Keltoi or Celtae: Herodotus, Aristotle, Polybius, Diodorus, Dionysius of Halicarnassus, Strabo, Ptolemy, Plutarch, Arrian, Pausanias, Ptolemy, Athenaeus, Livy, and Lucan. Caesar is generally right, because he distinctly states that the Belgic Gauls differed in language and in manners from the Celtic Gauls. Tacitus is full of mistakes on the subject. Justin describes the numbers and conquests of the Celts, and yet calls them "exparte cuncta de bellis gentes." Livy speaks of their courage, so does Florus, but the courage they described was Gothic. Diodorus tells us the Celts were tall and fair, and had yellow hair. His testimony goes for nothing; but when he tells us that the inhabitants of Narbonne were Keltoi, and the other people of the country Galatae, he seems to have been aware that there were two distinct races, though he did not know that Gaul and Galatia have precisely the same meaning. The Galatae were not Celts. Arrian says the Celts are of lofty stature, and Strabo tells us their hair was yellow; these are the marks of the Gs. Livy commits the same error, and Polybius assures us that those who sacked Rome under Brennus were Celts. They were Gothic Gauls, as his and Tacitus's descriptions shew. Strabo, who was not always wrong, as they knew of two distinct races in Gaul, but they are perpetually confounding them. Abridged from a very erudite treatise on the Gs, by G. MacCulloch's Highlands and Western Isles.

FOR SALE.—Dry Blocks, Dry Kindling, Cut Maple.

birth of Christ, a period beyond which profane history does not carry us; and probably the Goths may have migrated sooner, though we have no earlier account of them. From this time, the Gothic stream of population continued to flow in upon Europe, and, wherever it appeared, the Celts retired before it, dismayed and broken-hearted. Rome, imperial Rome, repelled it for a while, by arming one barbarous horde against another. Ultimately, however, she fell before the irresistible strength of the Gothic arm.

Every state of society is not equally favorable to the development of military qualities. Savages, or rather those to whom we are in the habit of applying that gross epithet, are distinguished for great fortitude, but are known to possess very little courage. The American Indians will endure (as all history proves) without a murmur the most refined torture, but they are seldom known to have faced an enemy openly; they assail their foe treacherously, shoot their darts from places of concealment, and depend for success upon sudden effort rather than upon manly and resolute attack. But, when men acquire more reliance upon personal prowess—when they have more to depend and more to gain—when rivalry has produced emulation, and when to be fearless is to be famous, society is in that state which is productive of men possessing all the attributes of warriors; and such was the state of society among the Scythians.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

CURE SICK HEAD.

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c.

ACHES.—Headache, yet CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels.

ACHE.—is the bane of so many lives that here it is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS are very small and very easy to take. One or two make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not grip or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them.

Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price.

A Missionary Recommends It.—Chateau Co. Montreal, Dec. 12, 1890. I fasted Koenig's Nerve Tonic in wonderful effect checking asthma or any nervous disease caused by nervous debility or overwork.

FREE.—A valuable book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address, and those who are afflicted can obtain this medicine free of charge.

KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.

In Montreal by E. LEONARD, 113 St. Lawrence Street.

The Cod That Helps to Cure The Cold.

SCOTT'S EMULSION.—The disagreeable taste of the GOD LIVER OIL is dissipated in SCOTT'S EMULSION.

FOR SALE.—Dry Blocks, Dry Kindling, Cut Maple.

J. C. MACGIARMID & CO., 830 St. James Street, Telephone, 8110.

Carsley's Column.

NOVELTIES

Specialties for Ladies.

Ladies will find that we have everything desirable to wear for the coming holiday.

GLOVE NOVELTIES.

Princess of Teck Glove in Black and Colored Kid, only $1.45. Paris Castor Glove in White and Tan, only 75c. The Marguerite Black Kid Glove with white stitching, 4-button, $1.60.

Gants de Luxe, 4-buttons, $1.85. Lace Novelties, Ladies' Silk Ties, New French Gilets.

Black and White Lace Scarfs, Irish Crochet Lace, Irish Crochet Point Lace, in Cream, White, Black and Two-toned.

Novelties for Ladies.—Leather Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. Morocco Belts in Black, Tans and Colors.

PLAIN AND FANCY FANS.—Pocket Fans, Hand-Painted Fans, Paper Fans, Straw Fans, Oxidized Silver Chatelaines, Chatelaine Bags, Hand Satchels.

RIBBONS.—Fancy Neck Ribbons in all shades, all silk, only 4c yard. Sash Ribbons, special value, 25c yard.

HOLIDAY MILLINERY, &c.—Ladies' Straw Hats for Country, Ladies' Cloth Caps, all new Shapes, New Cambric Blouses, New Cashmere Blouses, New Flannel Blouses, New Silk Blouses.

SPECIALTIES FOR GENTLEMEN.—Men's Flannel Neglige Shirts, Men's Canvas Neglige Shirts, Men's Flannelette Neglige Shirts, Men's Laced Flannel Shirts, Combination Laced and Buttoned Shirts.

THE RIGBY SUITS.—It is already pretty well proven that the Rigby Waterproof Garments suit the Canadian Climate, and give satisfaction in every particular.

Specialties for Ladies.—Leather Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. Morocco Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. New Spring Belts in Gold, Oxidized Silver, Steel and Jet.

Novelties for Ladies.—Leather Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. Morocco Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. New Spring Belts in Gold, Oxidized Silver, Steel and Jet.

Novelties for Ladies.—Leather Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. Morocco Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. New Spring Belts in Gold, Oxidized Silver, Steel and Jet.

Novelties for Ladies.—Leather Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. Morocco Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. New Spring Belts in Gold, Oxidized Silver, Steel and Jet.

Novelties for Ladies.—Leather Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. Morocco Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. New Spring Belts in Gold, Oxidized Silver, Steel and Jet.

Novelties for Ladies.—Leather Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. Morocco Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. New Spring Belts in Gold, Oxidized Silver, Steel and Jet.

Novelties for Ladies.—Leather Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. Morocco Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. New Spring Belts in Gold, Oxidized Silver, Steel and Jet.

Novelties for Ladies.—Leather Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. Morocco Belts in Black, Tans and Colors. New Spring Belts in Gold, Oxidized Silver, Steel and Jet.