The University of Pennsylvania is very much absorbed in the Greek play which it will put on the stage in the spring.

"Father," said a young son of Deacon Squibbs, "what is the difference between a man that dies wool on lambs and an editor?" "Well, now, really, my son," beaming benignly on his offspring, "I am not prepared to state. What is the difference?" "Why pa, one is a lamb dyer and the other is a—" "What? What? my son?" "An editor," continued the youth, rolling his tongue around in his cheek.

Senator Stanford's scheme for the establishment in California of a great university has been made public. His range at Palo Alto, near Menlo Park, about thirty miles from San Francisco, has been selected as the site. The several buildings comprising the university will be on the general plan of a parallelogram, and will be constructed so as to permit additions being made as the necessities of the institution may require. Senator Stanford will donate to the university, his Palo Alto, Gridley and Vina properties, worth $5,300,000. To this he will add a money donation, so as to make the total endowment of the university $20,000,000.

"Religion in College," is the subject of a debate between Presidents Eliot and McCosh to be given before the University Club at New York, Feb. 9.

At a recent Sunday School meeting, a long winded clergyman consumed too much of the time with a wordy address. When he sat down the leader of the meeting unwittingly announced the hymn beginning, "Hallelujah, 'tis done."

Subscriptions for 1885-6 are now due and should be sent to J. E. Jones, Treas. VARSITY, University College.
