

Media Advisory

January 25, 2005
No. A/9

MINISTER PETERSON TO PARTICIPATE IN THE WORLD ECONOMIC FORUM

International Trade Minister Jim Peterson will travel to Davos, Switzerland to participate in the World Economic Forum (WEF) from Wednesday, January 26 to Saturday, January 29.

At the WEF, Minister Peterson will address industry leaders on Rethinking Trade: The Path to Hong Kong 2005, and will attend a working dinner hosted by the Swiss Federal Council. The Minister will also take part in group discussions as an expert panelist and will meet with his counterparts from around the world to discuss various aspects of the global agenda.

For more information, please contact:

Jacqueline LaRocque
Director of Communications
Office of the Minister of International Trade
(613) 992-7332

Media Relations Office
International Trade Canada
(613) 995-1874
<http://www.international.gc.ca>

