

KIM CARTER - is the President of the Canadian Council on International Law and a legal officer with the Canadian Forces serving in the Office of the Judge Advocate General. She served for the past 15 years as the Judge Advocate General for the Canadian Forces from 1991 to 1995. In 1993 she was named team leader of the Canadian War Crimes Investigation Team which operated in the Balkans and was named to the United Nations Commission of Experts to investigate the allegations of war crimes being committed in the former Yugoslavia and UN a similar role in 1995.

YASIR NAQVI - is completing his Bar Admission Course in Ottawa, Ontario and after his call will be working for the law firm of Kitchener, Ontario. He graduated with a Bachelor of Laws from the University of Ottawa. He obtained both a B.A. and a B.Sc. (Honours) from the University of Hamilton, Ontario. He is Co-Chair of the Canadian Bar Association's Law Society of Ontario. He has been active in the international law field for several years and has had articles published in the field of Law, Law, Law and Justice, the Canadian Law Quarterly. He is fluently bilingual in English and Urdu as well as the Urdu language. He is a member of the Canadian Council on International Law and the International Law Association. He is also a member of the International Law Association of the Americas.

KATHERINE WOOD - is completing her Bar Admission Course in Ottawa, Ontario. She studied with the Federal Department of Justice. She graduated with distinction from McGill University with a B.L.S. and a B.A. She has been active for a number of years in the promotion of international human rights and was named as a McGill University Human Rights Law Intern and worked in that capacity in Colombia (1997). She is a member of the Canadian Council on International Law.

Wendy Cukier et al. Fall 2000.

Globalization and Terrorism: A Public Health Perspective. Wendy Cukier et al. Fall 2000.

Borders
Perspectives on the Borderless World: Issues for Canada. Heather Nicol and Ian Townsend-Gault. Fall 2000.

New Diplomacy
Report from the Roundtable on Just War. December 1-4, 2000.

Report from the Ottawa Roundtable on the International Law of Intervention and State Responsibility. January 2000.

Visit www.pcc.gc.ca for reports and other publications.