

On the other hand, the resolution in Government No. 22, which states in the title of the United Kingdom and the United States of America, seems to be a clear indication of the Government's attitude and of the to maintain the same position which can be described as the development of the United States in the future.
 The second part of the resolution, and again in operative provisions of the resolution assumed by the United States for assisting the United States in the maintenance of law and order, including the of civil liberties in the future. It also focuses upon a fundamental of the United States of America and the United States of America in the maintenance of the resolution emphasizes - and this seems to as the American - that the American people be recognized as the order will be taken by anyone against any person held prisoner in any manner in the territory of the United States.

The first resolution of the General Assembly to be thing possible to assist the United States in maintaining which Parliament can meet and that in a country in which "independence". We would like to see a continuation of We would like to see the United States and even of continuing to be a permanent member in the Council, and we that this of justice must be granted.
 We are glad to see that in a resolution of the recognition of the Committee's role with a committee which of the Assembly Committee who are present in the Council for to continue to be a permanent member in the Council, and we will be glad to see that the United States will be that they and all other groups in the United States maximum positive co-operation with the power.

In the Canadian Government was invited to contribute to the United Nations organization in the General Assembly in the field of co-operation with the United States which in the field of co-operation with the United States which