

Each number of the paper beyond two a claim of the ordinary use only.

Section thirty-six of the said Act is amended by chapter seventy-seven of the Statutes of 1908, is amended by striking out all the words in subsection one after the words "Mining Recorder" in the fourth line thereof, and by adding the following subsection:

(3) Persons holding an interest in a claim at the time of its forfeiture or abandonment shall not have the right to relocate the same or any part thereof within one year after the date of such forfeiture or abandonment.

Section thirty-seven of the said Act is amended by chapter seventy-seven of the Statutes of 1908, is amended by inserting the words "or later" after the word "grant" in the third line thereof.

Section thirty-eight of the said Act is amended by chapter seventy-seven of the Statutes of 1908, is amended by striking out the words "grant" in the first line of the first line of subsection six of this section.

Section forty of the said Act is amended by chapter seventy-seven of the Statutes of 1908, is amended and the following is substituted therefor:

40. The Gold Commissioner on behalf of the Government of Canada may authorize and direct the survey of the location of any creek or river to be made in accordance with such general instructions as may be issued by the Surveyor General, and such survey shall subject to the provisions of section thirty-nine of this Act with respect to advertisements and notices be a final determination of the location of such creek or river.

Section forty-three of the said Act is amended by chapter seventy-seven of the Statutes of 1908, is amended and the following is substituted therefor:

43. If the owner of a claim has done the required work thereon, but has failed to secure his grant thereon, the Mining Recorder may issue a grant to any person relocating such claim. Provided that the said person within six months after the date at which his grant would due for renewal apply for a renewal grant, and for the cancellation of any grant so issued, and the later grant shall be cancelled, or in the event of a grant not having been issued for said claim any pending application thereon shall be refused, upon it being proved to the satisfaction of the Mining Recorder that the required work was done by the said owner, and that the said owner paying the expenses to which the collector may have been put in

Page 10

Page 11

Page 12

Page 13

Page 14