

HALDIMAND GRANT

FREDERICK HALDIMAND, Captain General and Governor in Chief of the province of Quebec and territories depending thereon, etc., etc., etc., General and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's forces in said province and the frontiers thereof, etc., etc., etc.,

Whereas His Majesty having been pleased to direct that in consideration of the early attachment to his cause manifested by the Mohawk Indians and of the loss of their settlement which they thereby sustained that a convenient tract of land under his protection should be chosen as a safe and comfortable retreat for them and others of the Six Nations who have either lost their settlements within the territory of the American states or wish to retire from them to the British. I have at the earnest desire of many of these His Majesty's faithful allies purchased a tract of land from the Indians situated between the Lakes Ontario, Erie and Huron, and I do hereby in His Majesty's name authorize and permit the said Mohawk nation and such others of the Six Nation Indians as wish to settle in that quarter to take possession of and settle upon the banks of the river commonly called Ouse or Grand River, running into Lake Erie, allotting to them for that purpose six miles deep from each side of the river, beginning at Lake Erie and extending in that proportion to the head of the said river, which them and their posterity are to enjoy forever.

Given under my hand and seal at arms at the castle of St. Lewis, at Quebec, this twenty-fifth day of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, and in the twenty-fifth year of the reign of Our Sovereign Lord George the Third by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith and so forth.

FREDERICK HALDIMAND

Does that complete your submission?

The WITNESS: I have others to read.

The CHAIRMAN: Is it your brief or is it not your brief.

The WITNESS: It is more or less my brief.

Mr. HARKNESS: It is part of it, let us say.

The WITNESS: You must bear in mind that we have no education in the way of bringing up questions to you gentlemen. You must remember that there are two factions on the reserve.

The CHAIRMAN: Without getting into any controversy at the moment, what we would like you to do is to make your presentation any way you see fit and to submit such material as you may desire to bring before the committee.

The WITNESS: This is somewhat different.

The CHAIRMAN: You have your brief here?

The WITNESS: Yes.

The CHAIRMAN: Is this your complete brief?

The WITNESS: Just as I say, we have more material.

Mr. CASE: That is not his complete presentation.

The CHAIRMAN: Well, then, am I to take it that you have completed the presentation of your memoranda and that you now desire to make some extemporaneous remarks?
