

Borrowing Authority Act

they would go to their office instead of dilly-dallying and travelling around the world—

Some Hon. Members: Oh, oh!

Mrs. Maily: You mean like Don Boudria?

Mrs. Finestone: —they would find people who are unemployed, unhappy and in need of consideration and help. People are sitting very nervously at home. They are very concerned about where the axe will drop next. I do not know how members of this Government can possibly look at themselves in the mirror. Does this Government not have a social conscience and social responsibility? It certainly does not look that way.

Some Hon. Members: Five o'clock.

Mrs. Finestone: I would just suggest that if you look at the employment equity legislation and the response to our Equality For All Report, you would find that it speaks volumes. It is undirected, undefined and shows no real commitment. It is just lots of words.

Some Hon. Members: Five o'clock.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: It being five o'clock, this House stands adjourned until Monday next at 11 o'clock a.m., pursuant to Standing Order 3(1).

The House adjourned at 5 p.m.
