THE ROTOGRAPH SERVICE

of the

Modern Language Association of America

Colleges, Universities and Public Libraries are asked to send to the Treasurer of the Modern Language Association twenty-five dollars a year for the purpose of procuring rotographic reproductions of manuscripts and rare printed books in foreign libraries. The rotographs are deposited in the Division of Manuscripts of the Library of Congress which binds and catalogues them without cost to the Association. Contributing institutions have first claim upon the material collected, but reproductions, not being used by scholars connected with contributing institutions, are at the service of other institutions and of accredited individuals, under regulations formulated by the officials of the Library of Congress and the Committee of the Modern Language Association.

Rotographs are sent to those who desire them by mail, in accordance with the familiar system of inter-library loans. Applications should be addressed by the Librarian of the institution requesting the loan, to the Division of Manuscripts, Library of Congress, and should state distinctly that the reproduction in question is desired for the use of a professor or other well known scholar whose name is given, or for a student working under the direction of a teacher thus
