

THE LONDON SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND POLITICAL SCIENCE
UNIVERSITY OF LONDON
HUGHES STREET
ALDWYCH
LONDON, E.C.

the ordinary university vacations at McGill, with the bulk of the research done in term-time, or not?

I don't want to bother
you with these things if they are better dealt with from Canada. But time to think things over is, of course, relatively short. I should be very grateful, therefore, for anything you could let me know now.

Yours sincerely,
Leonard B. Marsh.
