After the physical drill a flashlight photograph was taken of the class in uniform, and a program was provided in the clubroom. A pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation of a set of silver-mounted ebony brushes to the physical director, Mr. Sargent, by H. M. Anderson, honoary vice-president, on behalf of the boys of the club.

The Annette Street School Old Boys' Association will meet in the new school building on Monday night next week. At this meeting Principal William Wilson will deliver an address on the history of the school, and the design of the presentation medals and colors of the association be decided upon.
All the old adult pupils of the original school are invited to attend.

school. The present school, which has seen its day and generation, was built 50 years ago, and the time has come when the growth of the town demands increased accommodation for the teaching of its children. Lately the school board were compelled to pass a law to the effect that no child under seven years of age could be admitted, and at the present time the smaller children are only attending school part of the day, some coming from 9 to 11 to make room for others. The average number of scholars under one teacher should be 40, but in Brampton some The death occurred yesterday of Mrs. Ann El ourner Perrett, wife of Capt. C. W. Perrett of the West Toronto staff, Salvation Army, at her home, 214 Mainty street. The late Mrs. Perrett had been ill for some time and was 35 years of age. Interment takes place Saturday afternoon in Prospect Cemetery.

For the month of December the customs duties collected at the West Toronto port amounted to $75,772.98. This is an increase of nearly $16,000 over the corresponding amount of $59,76.26 collected in December, 1911.

> There are two sets of plans before the board—a one-storey structure by Tanner and Colvile, architects, of Guelph, and a two-storey building Ellis and Cormery of Toronto. If the bylaw carries the plans will be decided late by the joint boards.

> The conditions and environment Brampton are such as to permit of a one-storey or two-storey structure be-ing erected for the accommodation of 400 pupils. In a one-storey building there is increased cost of construction the greater the area the greater the cost per cubic foot. A one-storey building necessitates extra excavating, foundation walls, roof, extra lumber for joists, larger and larger heating

The majority of the school board favor a two-storey building, but since Mr. Boulter had the English school plans made up on his arrival from England some dissention has been

HOME RULE BILL IS STILL GOING AHEAD

Closure Applied to Numerous Clauses—Birrell Objects to Proposed Limiting of Parliament's Powers.

LONDON, Jan. 2.-(C. A. P.)-Six clauses of the home rule bill were closured during the report stage last night. Earl Winterton moved mendment to clause 2, prohibiting the Irish Parliament from passing resolutions on matters purely imperti-nent to Ireland. He contended such a check was necessary in view of the danger which wight arise by the ing to treat with the men, but that adoption of resolutions affecting the recognition of the union would not be crown, issue of peace or war and for-executive, he said, wouldn't be empowered to have any envoys or any ac-credited persons with principalities, popes or powers. It was rejected by 125 majority.

Locker Lampson next moved an amendment to prevent the Irish Parliament from making grants or voting public money for a purpose upon which it was not empowered to legislate. Mr. Birrell contended the powers in the bill were sufficient and that the abuses apprehended couldn't arise. The amendment was negatived by 294 to Various government amendments to clauses 2 and 3 were then put and agreed to. The proposal to omit clause 4. by which the new executive is to be set up, was next discussed and negatived by 155.

BIG STRIKE AVERTED

What Might Have Been a Serious Calamity Settled by a Diplomatic Employer.

The duel lasted an hour, during which time thirty-two bouts were fought. It was brought to a conclusion only by the exhaustion of the contestants, who separated without being reconciled.

The combat arose out of a political quarrel.

A strike which might have proved a serious inconvenience to the amusement loving public was, so to speak, "nipped in the but," at a late hour last night by Manager Solman of the Alexandra Theatre. It was after the close of the performance that Mr. Solman was waited upon in his office by the three treasurers of the theatre, and A strike which might have proved a
