

Appendix.

SINCE the foregoing pages were written, a private letter of a later date has been received from Mrs. Hunt, extracts from which have kindly been placed in our hands; and as we are sure they will interest our readers, we have decided to insert them in the form of an Appendix:—

“ Lac la Ronge Station, “ August 19, 1850.

* * * “ Let me tell you, in the first place, and tell it to the praise of our God, to whom all praise is due, that we are very comfortable indeed. I felt happy and comfortable at Red River, but I am more so here; and I am more and more convinced that when the Lord directs us to any place, He Himself goes with us, and prepares the way Goodness and mercy follow us—would that we were more faithful to Him, and served Him better! I ardently long for this.

“ As to our daily temporal mercies, they abound; and I do feel that, while the Lord is so watchful and tender over us, we should indeed give up our all for Him and His
