future support. In the early part of 1819, the Lord Bathurst, then Colonial Secretary, instructed the Governor General, the Duke of Richmond, to adopt, with as little delay as possible, the necessary measures for creeting upon Mr. McGill's property an adequate building for the instruction of youth, and His Grace was authorized to defray the expense thereof from the funds which might be in the hands of the Receiver of the Jesuits' Estates.

But for reasons unknown to the Governors, these liberal intentions on the part of His Majesty were not carried into effect.

Thirdly:—The University of McGill College is the only one in Lower Canada which is non-sectarian. As such it possesses the confidence of the Protestant community of every religious denomination. This is shown by the list of subscriptions to the endowment fund, in which are to be found the names of Members of the English and Scotch Churches and of the Free Church, Methodists, Congregationalists, American Presbyteriaus and Unitarians; Members of the Jewish faith have also contributed.

Fourth:—The University is not a mere private Institution founded by individual benevolence, but is public and Provincial in its character. It is prepared to confer degrees not only upon the Students of its own Colleges, but, under just and salurary rules, upon those of any others which may be established in the Province,—thus rendering it unnecessary, as without doubt it is inexpedient, to multiply the number of Educational Institutions possessing that power.

The Governing body is appointed by the Crown and is removable at pleasure. The Governor General is its Visitor.

A large number of scholarships in the Faculty of Arts are at the disposal of His Excellency, and he has the presentation to 30 scholarships in the High School Department.

Fifth:—This Provincial character of the University, and the prosperity and influence which it has attained, mark it out as the great centre and support of the higher Protestant Education in Lower Canada. As such, the establishment and management of the Normal School has been confided to it with the approbation of the whole community; and the confidence has thus far been justified by a complete success. A further indication of the same nature is afforded by the affiliation with it of the St. Francis College (a flourishing Institution in one of the Eastern Townships) under the liberal terms provided by the Statutes of the University.
