

86500—DOCTOR'S RESIDENCE

Avenue Road, near Bloor Street, eleven rooms, on ground floor, special offering for quick sale.

H. H. WILLIAMS & CO., 38 King St. E.

PROBS: Some showers, but partly fair, with moderate winds.

TWELVE PAGES—MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 5, 1911—TWELVE PAGES

The New Standard Bank Building

A limited number of choice offices still for rent; best elevator service; best light.

H. H. WILLIAMS & CO., 38 King St. E.

VOL. XXXI—No. 11,245

The Toronto World

Sir Alan Aylesworth Candidate in Summer Election Sticks to the Ship

If Present Parliament Runs Its Course, Minister of Justice Will Carry Out Expressed Intention of Retiring from Public Life.

North York Liberals won't swap horses crossing the stream. Sir Alan Aylesworth wants to quit, but the situation is too critical, with the majority of the party opposed to a new outside man being insisted on them by the central organization, and a large vote in the local organization over reciprocity.

NEWMARKET, June 3.—(Special.)—If there is a general election this fall Sir Alan Aylesworth will probably be the Liberal candidate for North York. If parliament runs its course he will carry out his intention to retire. That seems to be the situation in this riding after the nominations to-day, when the minister of justice was named as candidate with T. C. Robinette, K.C., as alternative. The town hall was fairly well filled and there was an abundance of enthusiasm among the Liberal cohorts.

While reciprocity was admitted the great question before the country to-day and was discussed by Mr. Robinette and A. H. Clarke of South Essex, references to it were incidental to Sir Alan's announcements of the "forces of the Conservative party in the house of commons." The government would not dissolve parliament unless the opposition forced them to that extremity.

Mr. Borden was not so much to blame, "It rests upon the wild men, some uncontrolled and uncontrollable men who sit about him."

Sir Alan declared himself in favor of applying the rule. "The government has no intention of holding an election at the present time," he stated. "That is not going to happen, you may take it as coming from me, unless the public business of this country is deliberately obstructed so that it cannot be carried on by the men you send to Ottawa to do your work."

"If His Majesty's loyal opposition wants an election, they can have it; they know how to get it. "Bring on your election if you like, and we shall turn our backs to them. "We are perfectly prepared to meet them on this question of reciprocity, and to beat them." (Loud applause.)

W. C. Willfield, president North York Liberal Association, opened the meeting with a reference to the extended interest over the trade pact. He stated that the general sentiment was prevalent in the riding that Sir Alan Aylesworth should continue as representative and in view of that feeling, he was glad to see the announcement that Sir Alan was inclined to amend his declaration to retire and would assist the Liberal cause wherever possible.

T. C. Robinette, who was mentioned as a possible candidate, Mr. Willfield said, thoroughly endorsed that state of affairs. After the opening remarks the meeting took the form of a love feast and several resolutions were passed. The first resolution felicitated King George on his birthday. The second congratulated Sir Willfield Laurier.

The third endorsed the principles of the Liberal party and expressed satisfaction over Sir William Mulock and Sir Alan Aylesworth, who had successfully represented the riding in the Dominion parliament.

Approve Reciprocity. The fourth resolution was: "That we, the Liberals of North York, in mass meeting assembled heartily approve of the reciprocity agreement now under consideration in the house of commons, and believing it to be in the best interests of the people, urge its speedy adoption so that the unexampled prosperity we now enjoy and which has been made possible under the administration of Sir Willfield Laurier may be still further enhanced and prolonged."

This was responded to by a standing vote, and while there were several in the audience who declined to vote either way for practical purposes, it was unanimously approved.

The final scene in the love feast was a laudatory resolution to Sir Alan Aylesworth, which was responded to with cheers.

When the nomination was called Eugene Cade, Newmarket, offered the name of the minister of justice with the provision added that in the event of Sir Alan not being able to contest the election, T. C. Robinette, K.C., should be the Liberal standard bearer. The great question before the people of Canada at this time, said Mr. Robinette, was national in its conception.

Says West Will Change Borden. He scored the arguments of the Conservative party regarding reciprocity, and said after Mr. Borden came back from his proposed tour, after being bombarded by the farmers, "He would say, let reciprocity pass. The west is in favor of it, anticipating an

Continued on Page 8, Column 2.

GETTING READY FOR CORONATION

Elaborate Police Preparations to Avoid Accidents—Electricity Figures Largely in Decorations.

LONDON, June 3.—The usual dignity and stateliness of the British capital's public buildings, principal parks and streets, are being sacrificed to the demands of coronation visitors and eighteagers. The whole neighborhood of parliament, including the yards, of Westminster Abbey and the parliament buildings, is covered with huge unsightly wooden stands, most of the way from Trafalgar Square to the Abbey. The chief government offices are almost hidden in the same unattractive fashion.

St. James' Park, near Buckingham Palace, is similarly covered, as well as the principal streets, thru which the procession will pass. Even the church yards present a double row of stands, and these and clubs on St. James-street, Piccadilly, are fringed with stands. The big Rothschild House, near the entrance to Hyde Park, is being converted into a temporary camp for the troops. The southwestern section, opposite the fashionable quarter, is already filled with tents and horses.

A complete cordon of barriers with gates has been built on all streets leading to the line so that the police can prevent too great crowds from assembling and encroaching on that territory. Military contingents from distant colonies have begun to arrive. The many uniforms and the picturesque costumes of Indian potentates are already giving the town a festive appearance.

An Artistic Spectacle. Carpenters and decorators will have no holidays these days, since an immense amount of work remains unfinished for the coronation. The scenes with brilliant colors and gilded griffins in Whitehall are more effective than decorations at any previous coronation, and many columns are linked together by wire cables, with electric globes, and will supply a basis for the best scheme of illumination ever seen in London.

New Zealand's and other archways are nearly finished, but the decorations will be kept back until the coronation week. The decorations are costing $15,000 a mile, or more than $2 a yard, and will include ten thousand lamps in that distance.

Rehearsals of the coronation music have already begun in the church house. The principal novelties are a homage anthem, "Rejoice in the Lord," by Sir Frederick Hymon, and a hymn by the Lutheran "Ein Feste Burg."

At the end of the festival a "Te Deum," composed by Sir Hubert Parry, will be sung, and the hymn by Sir Edward Elgar, will be heard. These works have been tried at rehearsal, and Handel's "Zadok the Priest" has been sung with orchestral accompaniment.

Rehearsing the Coronation. The master of the horse has ordered trials of the royal carriage and the trials of the royal carriage and the trials of the royal carriage.

The knights of the various orders have not yet obtained permission to wear their mantles and surcoats, but even without this innovation, the coronation promises to be more magnificent than the last one.

The abbey is still filled with carpenters and masons, but the work remaining unfinished is chiefly concerned with decoration.

The knights of the various orders have not yet obtained permission to wear their mantles and surcoats, but even without this innovation, the coronation promises to be more magnificent than the last one.

The abbey is still filled with carpenters and masons, but the work remaining unfinished is chiefly concerned with decoration.

The knights of the various orders have not yet obtained permission to wear their mantles and surcoats, but even without this innovation, the coronation promises to be more magnificent than the last one.

The abbey is still filled with carpenters and masons, but the work remaining unfinished is chiefly concerned with decoration.

The knights of the various orders have not yet obtained permission to wear their mantles and surcoats, but even without this innovation, the coronation promises to be more magnificent than the last one.

THE SAME OLD WELL

AND THE PITCHER THAT WENT TOO OFTEN TO IT

DESIRE PEACE BUT MUST PREPARE FOR DEFENCE

Premier Fisher of Australia Replies to Workmen's League—Compulsory Service a Necessity.

(C. A. P. Cable.)

LONDON, June 4.—Replying to an address presented by a deputation of the Workmen's United Empire League Saturday to Australian Premier Fisher, the Australian Premier, Fisher, said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

He said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

He said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

He said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

He said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

He said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

He said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

He said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

He said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

He said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

He said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

He said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

He said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

He said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

He said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

He said that the commonwealth's defense policy was not to defend their own land, but to defend their own people.

COX INTERESTS TO PROMOTE NEW BANK?

Montreal Hears That it Will Be Big Corporation, With Capital of at Least Ten Millions—Circulation of Present Banks Has Reached Its Limit.

MONTREAL, June 4.—(Special.)—The report to the effect that the Cox interests would in the near future promote a new bank with very large resources, has revived the discussion over the future of the Canadian banks, and it is generally admitted in Montreal banking circles that something must be done before a very long period. A leading banker stated to-day that the circulation of the banks doing business in the Dominion has reached its limit, with three remedies ahead.

First, the circulation of a larger quantity of Dominion notes over the counter, the distribution of gold, the founding of a number of big banks, or the increasing of capital of the existing banks.

Difficulties present themselves at once in most of these alternatives. In the first place, the people are not accustomed to the general use of gold, as is the case in Great Britain, while if the banks increase their capital, the amount to be earned for dividends will have to be proportionately larger. The alternative of founding new banks is no doubt what will take place, as it is conceded in the Canadian business world that the legitimate trade of the country has increased in a far greater ratio than the resources which the present banks have placed at the disposal of the business community.

This, therefore, encourages the belief that Hon. Geo. A. Cox, President Plumber of the Dominion Steel Corporation, E. R. Wood and their powerful allies and associate financial corporations, will in the near future start a bank with a capital of at least $10,000,000.

It is stated here every day of the week that, although the International has the promise of another ten millions in Paris, where it is required, there is still room for another big English bank, either in Montreal or in Toronto, and that if Senator Cox and his associates took it into their heads, some other group will do so sooner or later.

DEATH CAME SUDDENLY

Charles Kirby Victim of Attack of Heart Disease.

Charles Kirby, of 48 Leatt's-avenue, was found dead in bed in a room in the Merchants Cold Storage Forwarding Co. that this year truck shipped by the company will reach Mexico early the following morning and be delivered in Toronto before 7 o'clock.

Reports submitted to growers by the directors showed the company to have had a successful year. As a result more buildings will be erected this year so that an increased trade can be handled.

Dr. Fisher was called and after examination declared death to have been caused by heart failure. The chief coroner was notified and placed the matter in the hands of Coroner Dr. G. B. Smith, for investigation. Dr. Smith, a former physician to Mr. Kirby, declared that the latter had long suffered from heart disease, so that it is doubtful if an inquest will be held.

Mr. Kirby, who was 39 years of age, leaves a widow and family of five children. He was for 16 years a bookkeeper with Wylid, Darling firm, but had been with the Gordon, Mackay Co. as bookkeeper since 1904, and was highly respected.

PATERSON ISN'T GOING

Mr. Oliver Will Go West Alone to Talk Reciprocity.

OTTAWA, June 4.—(Special.)—Hon. William Paterson, who had his trunk packed for a packed trip to offset the Borden tour, isn't going.

The minister of customs was billed to go west with Hon. Frank Oliver to discuss the duties on imports and other commodities with the grain growers. Just what happened to these arrangements nobody seems to know, but it is announced to-night that the team is broken, that Mr. Oliver will go west alone and that Mr. Paterson will do his talking in Ontario.

PERLEY TO PRESIDE

At Conservative Headquarters During Borden's Western Tour.

OTTAWA, June 4.—(Special.)—George H. Perley, chief Conservative whip, has returned to Ottawa after a short holiday, and will preside at the Conservative headquarters during the absence of Mr. Borden, first in Nova Scotia, and afterwards in the west.

Mr. Borden goes east to-morrow. He is being flooded with applications for speeches at various western points, and the tour is expected to develop into a series of car-and meetings.

Girl's Body Found in Canal.

ST. CATHARINES, June 4.—(Special.)—The body of Gertrude Dale, 15 years old, was found floating in the old Welland canal between lock 21 and 22 to-day by Owen Cummings. The girl had disappeared over a week ago and it was feared she had done away with herself.

London Cheese Board. LONDON, Ont., June 3.—Eight factories offered 972 boxes, 120 white, balance colored; 341 sold at 10 13-16 cents.

Continued on Page 7, Column 1.

Advertisement for Seven Rooms and Sun Room, Phone Main 4648.

Advertisement for Billiard Room, floor game is Billiards the Game—no Better.

Advertisement for Millender Co., VANCOUVER, EDMONTON.

Advertisement for Diamonds.

Advertisement for Gledhill, 44 St. Arcade.