New York, April 14.—The Carter Handicap, at seven furlongs, with $2000 added, will to-morrow mark the inauguration of the Metropolitan racing season at Agueduct. Twelve horses are entered for the race, and only four of these are said to be hopeful. The field is made up of the following: Tocco, Ocean Tide, Grande and Jack Barth, Rapid Water, because of the club probably will be installed as public favorite, also Rose Ben, Buttons, Towson and the stable mates, Santa Catalina and Bonanza, are sure to be backed heavily.
