Mrs. H. Beemer, 761 Maitland street, has identified a diamond ring found on the prisoner as one missed from her house recently. In addition, a black onyx diamond ring has been identified as the property of Miss Reo Strong, 409 Horton street.

Included in the booty taken from Dorladine's rooms at 251 Queen's avenue by local detectives, there is a solid amber pipe trimmed with gold. The gold work is beautifully done representing bunches of grapes, and as this pipe is one of exceptional design, an early claimant for it is expected. When taken from the prisoner, the pipe was in an odd case, originally used for a meerschaum pipe with trade mark R. M. P. stamped upon it.

Wholesale Resignations More Than Probable At End of the School Term—Action of London Teachers Is Not Known Yet.

General dissatisfaction with salaries throughout Western Ontario may culminate with wholesale resignations from the teaching staffs at the end of the present term, according to inform the present term, according to inform London, June 24.—(By Canadian Associated press).—Ahe Labor party conference at Scarborough was addressed yesterday by Old. Heaps, representing the Winnipeg strikers, on the proposed appeal to the privy council from sentences passed on various members concerned in the strike. He declared that any quotations put in against the prisoners as being seditious were Labor party program passages from Isaiah and from Henry George's book on "Progress and Poverty."

The conference was noisy at times. Among the matters dealt with, it repudiated the Paris treaties, advocated the withdrawal of armed forces from freiand, and after denying the right of any government to govern the country and the property of the teachers throughout Ontario are pledged not to take the positions at the old salaries is from the teaching staffs at the end of the trustees. There is a general shortage of teachers in the other provinces. There is no indication yet whether a small country to the teachers and towns increases have been granted recently, but these are said to be insufficient to satisfy the end of this term than usual. The usual report on resignations and other provinces will have an interesting problem to solve when the schools are opened in the autumn. It is generally acknowledged that teachers throughout Ontario are pledged not to take the position in the London schols.
