

BASEBALL Toronto 3 Rochester 1

LEAFS ASSISTED TO SECOND BY COLTS

An Error and a Wild Pitch Scored Two of Leafs' Runs.

LIGHT HITTING

Duffyites Had One-Hit Margin and Naturally They Won Game.

It is too bad that Jim McCaffery and Davy Fultz don't pull well together. If the Toronto proxy was real friendly with the league head we could show him a scheme that would land the pennant here sure. All Jim would have to do would be to get Duffy to let the Leafs play Club stay here until the season closes, when the pennant would be sure. Arthur Irwin's powder-puff dusters were right in the class yesterday. They ran up a total of five hits and one run. The Leafs scored three times.

The Duffy boys were not overburdened with a lot added on each man's average. The Leafs were a bit shy with the stick, and their six connections were nothing to blow about. Two misplays were kicked in by the Colts for two of the three runs, and the other one was brought across by a sacrifice fly. This is hardly pennant-winning stuff, but the game came in the official table, so it doesn't make much difference how it was won.

The locals may be running a grand total of victories against the low clubs, but don't think they are walking away with the battles. These Rochester Colts are putting gray hairs in Hugh Duffy's head. They didn't do much with Hearn's delivery in the hit line yesterday, but they drove a lot of balls far into the outfield, and only bang-up fielding kept them in check.

A double-play was needed to down their spirit in the ninth. Long pulled off a double. The next man rolled out, but Rodriguez kicked to left, and Anderson had to make a fast throw to nip Long off at the plate. It was a good ending to a game that did not make the fans any too secure about victory.

The Leafs had the breaks, and were thankful for them. Their hitting was light and of the kind that made scoring an achievement to be proud of. The visitors were first to score. Ross' hit in the third, Sedgwick's sacrifice and Long's slap to centre (Matthews), a funny play dropped up. He rolled to Hearn, second and third. He was run down, and then Matthews was only half-way between first and second. He was also nipped for a double-play.

The Leafs evened it in the fourth, with help. Onslow hit. Blackburne crossed them all up by bunting towards third. He had it beaten a mile. Onslow took third and kept on to the plate. Long picked up the ball and heaved to third, and Rodriguez dropped the ball. With this timely error Onslow would have been a sure out at the plate.

The two needed for the total of three were gathered in the sixth. Moore assistance was given here. Anderson hit to left, and Onslow beat a punt towards second. Riley moved them up with a sacrifice, and Blackburne's sacrifice fly to right scored. Andy Sedgwick, the Rochester finger, supplied a wild pitch for the other run. The rest of the affair was tame, the Leafs winning, 3 to 1.

NUMATICS PULL THE BISONS FROM TOP

At Reading (International).—Baltimore started a rally in the fourth inning, which resulted in a 7 to 4 victory over the Marines in the third game of the series. Score: R. H. E. Baltimore.....10 0 4 0 1 10-7 11 5 Reading.....0 0 0 0 0 1 12 0-4 10 2 Batteries—Ogden and Lefler; Barnhardt and Konick.

FOR CIVIC HOLIDAY MOTORCYCLE RACES

Dallimore must have been out practising for the motorcycle races on Civic Holiday and picked up a few miles per hour by the way he feels about his chances to beat Harold Cole in the championships. Cole's machine is a specially designed racing motorcycle and is really fast; so fast that it takes all Cole has to hang on, and when those two hook together on the turns, watch ahead of the dust for happenings. At the last meet Dallimore's motor rolled up and he was the first of the spark plugs. Specially imported racing plugs with glass insulation have been secured so there will be no chance of his machine slowing on this account. O'Donnell has been under cover lately, but no doubt will spring some new stunt that will loop him around the track at some rate that will knock all the doers cold. Shuttleworth and Woods as amateurs will be out in front if everything goes well, although Ed. Friend yesterday afternoon turned the track in 36 seconds to the lap. This is fast for Exhibition track, and if these boys can do this in the Civic Holiday, it's going to be a grand afternoon's sport.
