

The Christian Journal.

THE CHRISTIAN JOURNAL, published under the sanction of the Conference of the Primitive Methodist Body in Canada, and intended as a newspaper that may be read with satisfaction and profit in every moral and religious family, is now issued at the Office, King Street East, Toronto, at the low charge of One Dollar a-year, and the postage pre-paid to all the Subscribers.

✂ Inclose in a Letter the Dollar, your Name, with the name of the Post-Office where it is to be directed to, and the Paper will be sent immediately.

✂ In order to comply with the present postage law, all Letters sent to the Primitive Methodist Mission Office and Book Room must now be pre-paid.

TORONTO, July, 1859.