"The only Jokes women like to read are those thich reflect ridicule upon men." "Yes," says a ontemporary, "on taking up a paper a woman nvariably turns to the marriage column." A gentleman, speaking of a young lady who as studying medicine as "a dear little duck," a fiend remarked, "I am sorry to hear that." Why so?" asked the gentleman. "Because" eplied the friend, "if she is a duck, I am afraid he will make a quack doctor."

An old darkey, who was asked if in his experience prayer had ever been answered, replied: "Wal, sah, some pras is ansud an' some isn't. 'Pends on vat you axes fo'. Just arter de wah, wen it was mighty hard scratchin' fo' de cullud bruddern, I 'learved dat w'eneber I pway de Lord to sen' one o' Marse Peyton's fat turkeys fo' de ole man, dere was no notice took of de partition; but w'en I pway dat he would sen' de ole man fo' de turkey, de matter was tended to befo' sun up nex' mornin', dead sartin'
