

PROTE

The Committee purpose of assisting those who arrive from foreign countries as subscribers and publishers in 1855: and while the benefit has arisen from a very limited number received, have proved their usefulness, and of James Mills, to whom for the success that

The Committee is interested in rescuing those who are anxious and they know that that benevolent object

There are in this class the vile, who are enemies of innocence, and instances of the Committee, have been made to ruin the object of this Association