IMPORTANT LETTER COMES FROM CAPT. HILL RELATIVE TO SENDING THINGS TO SOLDIERS

The following letter has been received by one of the members of the executive of the Soldiers' Comfort Association. It was written at East Sandling Camp, July 19, 1915, by Capt. H. R. Hill of the 26th Battalion:

Dear Madam:

You have no doubt been wondering why you have not heard from me regarding the matter of sending parcels over on this side of the Atlantic. My first trip to London I did not have an opportunity of seeing Mr. J. G. Colmer, so was not in a position to send you the desired information, however, I did secure the information two or three days ago and will endeavor to give you all the facts.

Any parcels addressed to certain men will be delivered as soon as a possible without being opened. However, they should be securely wrapped and tied up or they will be obliged to re-wrap them. I made arrangements so that any parcels addressed in care of me will have special attention and be forwarded at once. Therefore, if anyone desires to send a parcel to any member of the 26th or 28th battalions they can address them in care of me and they will then be forwarded promptly to me and I in turn will see that they are handed promptly to the correct parties.

We also talked about sending the supplies to me and I would give them out with great care and see that they were not wasted and were put in the hands of those needing them most. In regard to this I can report that I have made arrangements so that any boxes addressed to me will be given prompt and special attention and forwarded to me at any point where I may be located and no delay occasioned waiting to find out where I am or what I might want.

I might say at this time that since coming over here I have volunteered to take over the work among the boys of the 26th battalion, they not having a Y.M.C.A. secretary as yet, so you see I will have double opportunity of doing good having two battalions to work for and these boys, I will perhaps have several smaller units when we get into France.

The country here is very beautiful and while we all like it we would much prefer to be back in dear old Canada (not until after the war is over, however).

Any parcels for the boys addressed in my care should be as follows: Captain H. R. Hill, for (name) 26th or 28th Battalion (or other unit), 2nd C. E. F., England.

If whole case is to be sent to me it should be addressed as follows: Canadian War Contingent Association (or as you have been sending them) to Captain, H. R. Hill, then the usual address.

I will forward you a list of any other units as soon as they are available.

Thanking you for your kindness in this matter and trusting that you will remember us in your prayers, I remain

Yours for service,
 (Sgd.) H. R. HILL, Capt.

DIVORCE COURT SESSION HERE FARMS SOLD

Several Transfers Are Reported—St. John Men to the Land

A session of the divorce court was held here this morning, Mr. Justice McKeown presiding.

The case of Maud Nancy Bugless vs. Clement Darlington Bugless was taken up. They belong to Albert county and were married in Pittsburg in 1908. The plaintiff and Dr. James E. M. Carvath of Hillsboro were examined this morning and evidence was taken on Friday morning and commission was read. This closed the case.

The divorce is sought on statutory grounds. The case is somewhat unusual in the seeking to prove the offence by presumption and by direct testimony, which is usually the case. Judgment was reserved. M. G. Reed, K.C., was the plaintiff's proctor, and the defendant put in no appearance.

Alfred Burley & Co. report that the session just passed has been a successful one regarding the unfavorable conditions created by the war. While they have not sold so many cheap farms as they did for a year or two preceding the war a good number of the better class of farms have been sold.

A few days ago they completed the sale of William McKim's farm at Armstrong's Corner, Queens county. The McKim property is an upland farm commanding a splendid view of the beautiful Nepean valley and surrounding country, and consists of 125 acres with a good set of buildings. The purchasers are Robt. T. Read, late superintendent of the Steam Trawlers' Apprentice Home, Grimsby, Eng., and William Wainwright, steam trawler. Mr. Read, accompanied by his wife and two daughters, arrived here on Tuesday and took possession of the farm on Wednesday.

They have purchased the entire farm equipment, and as they are two sturdy young men it is doubtful they will do more than remain until they are capable of handling the farm on their own.

Another recent sale was a large farm near St. John, which was owned by B. C. on the O'Kanagan Lake. Mr. Meyer left an $8,000 orchard property which he hopes to sell after the war. He had also farmed in the American west and came here because he believed it was the best country.

Mr. Burley says if it were possible to make all these exchanges of western land for New Brunswick farms that they had requests for, they would find it difficult to find farms enough to meet the demand, and that they are in communication with scores who intend coming here after they find purchasers for their western holdings. Many Quebec people are also turning to New Brunswick, and the following persons from that province recently purchased farms from Messrs. Burley:

L. W. Lougouor, of St. Agathe de Lotbiniere, purchased the Thomas farm at Fredericton Junction and has taken possession with his family. He has purchased all the farm equipment.

Samuel G. Hawley of Magog purchased Charles Stuckson's farm at Head of Second Lake, (Loch Lomond), having a beautiful frontage upon the lake for 100 rods. Mr. Hawley does not intend coming for a year or two but secured the farm fearing prices might increase on account of heavy immigration to this province after the war.

H. D. Tuckey sold a farm seventy miles from Montreal to come here. Mr. Tuckey purchased the Walter Northrup farm at East Scotch Settlement, Kings county and has moved with his family to the farm.

Another good sale was the Herman Rice farm at Bear River, N. S. with large orchard and fine buildings. It was sold to J. Royden Thomson of this city. Mr. Thomson has settled down to farming, having a close neighbor Alfred Porter, who was associated so long with Mr. Thomson in Wm. Thomson & Co's employ.

Other sales have been made during the season but these are all quite recent.

NEIGHBORS' QUARREL IS AIRED IN POLICE COURT

A neighbors' quarrel was given a hearing in the police court this morning. Mrs. Mary L. Truscott of Baner street, was charged with assaulting Cyril Moore, by hitting him in the face with a water dipper and inflicting a cut over his left eye. The plaintiff testified that he arrived home on Monday morning and was informed that the defendant had thrown some hot water over her. The witness said that Cyril Moore, the witness said that Cyril Moore, corroborated the plaintiff's testimony, and three women who had witnessed the trouble also testified along the same lines.

Blanch Josephson, daughter of the defendant, gave an entirely different version. She said her mother went to open the door to let in some air, and as she did so Mrs. Moore threw her water mat. Some words were exchanged and her mother threw a cup of tea at Mrs. Moore. The witness said that Cyril Moore and his brother the policeman then forced open the door of their house and the policeman threw her mother on the stove. His brother, she said, struck her on the head, drawing blood, and threw her over a trunk. Although cross questioned by R. G. Murray, who appeared for the prosecution, she did not swerve from her story.

The defendant told a similar story and showed a discoloration on her left arm. She also showed a bandage saturated with blood which she said had covered the cut on her head.

Magistrate Ritchie said he considered that the weight of evidence was against the defendant. He was, however, not disposed to send her to jail as her husband was away to the war and she had two young girls to look after. He said the plaintiff and his brother would have to appear in court on next Tuesday morning when a thorough investigation will be held re the charges made by the defendant and her daughter against them. If it is proven that they forced an entrance and assaulted the woman, he said it might be a case for the higher court to deal with.

A GOOD TIME AT PICNIC

Under very fine weather conditions about 700 people attended Ludlow Street Baptist picnic at Westfield Beach yesterday. The Carlton Band played a very fine programme, which was much enjoyed. The children attending were all given a substantial treat, aside from the train ride. The committee in charge were Rev. W. R. Robinson, with general chairman, R. H. Parsons; transportation, Ernest Campbell; for cream and candy, Mrs. H. Sheffield; refreshments, Wm. M. Campbell; children's table, Mrs. E. Byles; pvt. table, Mrs. Geo. Price; children's games, superintendent; vice chairman, John F. King. The races were well contested. Girls winning prizes were Mary Roxborough, Gladys Amber, Laura Irvine, Pearl Crawford, Hattie Wheaton, Mabel McLeod, and Gladys Rupert. The boys who received prizes were Willie Gray, Greenville Black, Harvey Wells, Charlie Bissett and Rupert Mahony. The three-legged race for older boys was won by Haen Fairweather and Roy Sanderson, after an exciting contest.
